Frosh Down Seniors
In 1932 Volley Ball

Juniors Are Winners Over
Sophs in Consolation
Game

The Freshman class stole the Volley Ball championship laurels from the Seniors in an easy struggle Wednesday night, April the twenty-seventh. The Freshmen completely white-washed the Seniors in the first game, but the Seniors atop the dope bucket and through the clever maneuvering of serves by Bradford, Crews and Preston piled up a score of 15 to 6 and won the second game. The Freshmen rallied their players and succeeded in winning the third game and therefore the set with a score of 15 to 7. Not much volleying was done in the game and thus it became truly a game of serves.

The consolation game which was also played Wednesday night proved to be more exciting and a harder fought game than the championship game. Through the whole of the three games the specific outcome was doubtful as each class seemed to want to throw the honor of being consoling on the other. The first game was won by the Juniors with a close score of 15 to 12. The second game was a definite Sophomore victory ending with a score of 15 to 8. The third set was the hardest fought of all the games. Margaret Johnson started the game by scoring six points for the Juniors. Calder scored an opposing six points, making the score 8 to 6. Thorpe added another six points to the Juniors' score but Stough and Hale raised the Sophomore points a tie again. Mae Johnson and E. Mickey scored another two points, making the score 14 to 12. Holleman and Hadley again tied the score. The last two points were won by the Juniors only through the hardest scrapping ever seen in that gymnasium. Thus the Sophomores lost and became mourners of a longed for possession.

In the first of the elimination games which were played Friday night, April twenty-second, the Freshmen defeated the Sophomores by scores of 15-12; 7-15; 15-5. The Seniors defeated the Juniors Friday night by scores of 15-11; 15-5. Other elimination games were played Monday afternoon, April the twenty-fourth. The Juniors defeated the Freshmen by scores of 15-7; 14-16; 15-1.

Players in the games were:
Seniors—Biles, Preston, Bradford, Crews (captain), Smothers, Langley, Graves, Meister, Hyde.
Juniors—Thorpe, E. Mickey, Heidemreich, Mae Johnson (captain), M. Johnson, Walker, Crodle.
Sophomores—Hadley (captain), Woolsey, Holleman, Leake, Huntington, Vologodsky, Biles, Stough, Petree, Calder.
Freshmen—Maxwell, captain, Holleman, Waggoner, Baines, McLean, Keatley, Long, Tuttle, Donald, Tuttle, Donald.

Commencement Concert In Washington Celebration

Dean Vardell's "Christmas
Evocation" To Receive
First Performance

Preparations are now under way for the Commencement Concert of the School of Music of Salem College which will be on Saturday night, May 28, in Memorial Hall.

There will be two chorus numbers of which the principal will be John Aiden Carpenter's "Song of Faith," to be sung in observance of the Washington Bi-Centennial Celebration. It was written, by Carpenter at the request of the Centennial Committee and is being used in various places all through the year. "Song of Faith," which is for both chorus and orchestra, contains near the end a passage from one of Washington's speeches which is to be read by Dr. Rondthaler. The other chorus number is Dean Vardell's "Christmas Evocation," an "A Capella" anthem for eight voices which has just been published and which will receive its first performance at this concert.

Miss Elizabeth Willis, who gave her graduating recital in piano on April 4, will play Beethoven's "Concerto No. 3, in C minor" for harp and stringed orchestra by Maurice Ravel in which Miss Eleanor Shaffner, head of the harp department, will be the soloist. Miss Hazel Horton Read, head of the violin department, will conduct the orchestral division.

Miss Doris Kimel, who will give her graduating recital in voice on May 9, will sing "Shadow Song," from "Dinorah," by Meyerbeer.
