

MR. HIGGINS SIGNS CHEMIST'S CODE

 be revealed to any other member.
 It is contemplated that the Industry may, from time to time, submit supplemental provisions to this Code, and such supplemental provisions shall become effective as therein provided after their approval by the President of the United States.

VIII. Supplemental Provisions—a
 If any employer in the industry is also an employer in any other industry, the provisions of this Code shall apply to and affect only that part of the business of such employer which is included in the consulting chemists and chemical engineers industry.

IX. Supplemental Provisions—c
 The members of the Industry shall be bound by the Code of Ethics and Interpretations of the Association as set forth in the pamphlet, pp. 8-10 incl. herewith attached and hereby made part of this Code.

X. Effective Date and Duration
 (a) This Code shall become effective the second Monday after its approval by the President of the United States, and shall remain in effect until the expiration or repeal of Title I of the National Recovery Act, unless sooner cancelled as provided in paragraph (b).

(b) This Code and all the provisions hereof are expressly made subject to the right of the President, in accordance with the provisions of Clause 10 (b) of the National Industrial Recovery Act, from time to time, to cancel or modify any order, approval, license, rule or regulation issued under Title I of said Act.

NEW CONTRIBUTOR TO PAPER

It will be of interest to the readers of this paper that Mr. Dick Pfohl is running a series of articles for the Salemite. The first, entitled "The Wachovia Museum", is in this issue. Descriptions of articles found in the museum will be found in issues to follow. New and old girls are urged to go through this interesting building which is a definite part of Salem.

SALEM GIRLS MAKE DEBUT

Several girls who are now students at Salem will be presented at the Debutante Ball and Festivities which will be held in Raleigh this Friday and Saturday. Those attending are Mildred Haase of Pine Hall, Jane Worthington of Kinston, Babbie Way of Waynesville, Lucy James of Greenville, Rebecca Harrison of Williamson, Elizabeth Hubbard of Clinton, Frances Hill Norris of Raleigh, Elizabeth Gray of Winston-Salem, Miriam Houston of Monroe, and Edith Makepeace of Sanford. The ball will be led by Sallie Root, a former Academy student.

DR. ANDERSON SPEAKS TO FACULTY

Last Saturday afternoon, Dr. Winslow S. Anderson, Dean of Rollins College, Winter Park, Florida, spoke to the Salem faculty on the unique plan of Rollins College. It will be remembered that Dr. Anderson, who is grand Archon of Theta Kappa Nu visited Salem several years ago and was of great help to the girls who were at that time organizing the Order of the Sororion.

SECOND-HAND BOOK STORE

The Junior Class has opened a Second hand book store whose mottoes are courtesy and service. The sales ladies smilingly supply the courtesy free of charge, but the student body must lend a hand if there is to be real service. Books are being asked for every day and every hour of the day—books which you are probably boarding in your room and don't know if, and which would not only help your underclassmen, but would bring back to you half their worth in gold (you were supposed to have absorbed the other golden half in knowledge at sometime or other.)

The store is in the Y room—to the left of the Registrar's office in Main Hall; it will be open the rest of this week and probably longer if necessary. Before inquiring for books you yourself wants please search out your own saleable ones and bring them to the store. N. R. A.—If you know what that stands for.

MISS CASH IS OFFICER

At the August meeting of the North Carolina Chapter of the American Guild of Organists, Miss Mary Frances Cosh, of Salem's music faculty, was elected treasurer. The meeting was held at the University and was followed by an organ recital by Lawrence Apgar, organist of Duke University. Other officers elected were Frederic Stanley Smith of Finesburg, Dean; George M. Thompson, of the Women's College of the University, Sub-dean; and Elizabeth Brewer, of Rockingham, Secretary.

"It's a Bully good Cigarette"

SO FAR as I can tell... and I've smoked a lot of them... CHESTERFIELDS are always the same. They have a pleasing taste and aroma.

I smoke 'em before breakfast and after dinner. I smoke 'em when I'm working. I smoke 'em when I'm resting. And always they satisfy. They suit me right down to the ground.
