SHINING

It is a common theory nowadays that it is a great deal more difficult that it is a great deal more difficult to be outsione than it is to shine． Anyone，or almost anyone，can make a fool of herself in the midst of crowd，and have fun while she is being laughed and pointed at．If the shining moment of publicity to the full． Real enjoyment is a peculiar thing Can one standing in the admiring throng，hidden by heads and should－ ers all about her，really enjoy the success of the momentary star of the success of the momentary star of the occasion？Usally if the hidden one has any imagination，she will picture herself of her own bag of tricks， showing of receiving the bouquets but never and the brickbats of that one．a thing as However，ther is such a ple reason that one is on the outskirts and not in the center．On theout－ skirts，it is perfectly permissable to blow one＇s nose，or pull up one＇s stock－ ings，while for the periormer，soch actions would be unheard of．One may eat candy from a Kress paper may eat candy from a Kress paper bag，and feel free to teave the crowd at any moment that one becomes bored or tired．Certainly there is a great deal of enjoyment to be found on the edge of a crowd of spectators， which is lost to the entertainer of that e rowd．To the entertainer the moment is work，for the entertained， it is but a passing bit of play． course，the work brings along wit it the attention and admiration of it the attention and admiration of the spectators，and the moment of linger－ inge in the spotlight lingers also in the memory of the worker．On the other hand we have mentioned the im－ aginary glory，the absolute freedom aginary glory，the absolute freedom of the unnoitced admirers．The ques－ tion of which is most enjoyable de－ tion of which is most enjoyable de－ pends upon which one enjoys most， ON LOOKING

COMMENCEMENT
Commencement！There is a certain magic in that word that never fails to stir our hearts whenever we hear it． Commencement！Our eyes have bern turned towards this goal since the first day of school．It signifies the completion of our tasks here．It has a place in the heart of every stu－ dent．
To the undergraduate，Commence－ ment is an impressive ceremony，the climax to previous exercises．
To the Seniors it is the realization of one of life＇s great ambitions．The four years that they have spent in college have been a drama．They have each shared jopy and sorrows，suc－ cesses and failures．As they look back they can see the parts they might have played．One act of life＇s drama is nearly over．The curtain rises on the last scene，the grand finale－Commencement．

SAYING WHAT WITH FLOWERS
Sent to the dead or the living， flowers say＂it＂for the sender．But saying＂it＂with flowers in any case means more than words can express． If flowers are sent to a family who has lost one of its members，they usually say，＂We are sympathizing with you，because we love you．Look at our beauty and forget your sor－ row．＂Yet when flowers are sent to a very ill person，they say even me than they did in the first case，be－ cause they speak，＂hurry－and－get－well＂ words hourly to the patient．Indir－ ectly the flowers speak to the sick ectly the flowers speak to the sick person things which their sender could not have found words to express，eve though he had been let into the coom． After all he is spared the effort of worrying his brain for the right words and saying it with flowers is a relief from the strain． Often saying it with flowers means nothing more than three little words． and＂it＂is frequently heard in the Spring of the year when words really fail youths in the presence of their ＂heart＇s desire．＂When the lover says it with flowers．He wants them to say，＂I think you＇re swell，＂if they are orchids；＂Heres something for you to remember you to remember me by，＂if they，＂re if forget－me－nots，or＂I love you，＂if they are red rosebuds．．．or what they are re
have you？
