J. C. PENNEY & CO.

It is a woman's business to get married as soon as possible, and a man's to keep unmarried as long as he can.—George Bernard Shaw.
 Ambition is the only grand passion that does not enoble.—Mary Murfree.
 Better to remain silent and be thought a fool than to speak and remove all doubt.—Abraham Lincoln.
 Self is the center of the solar system with many souls, and around this point do all its incidents revolve.—Mary Murfree.
 You cannot be both fashionable and first-rate.—Logan Pearsall Smith.

REFLECTION
 Crystal clear as dew drops,
 Sparkling, radiant, spangled,
 Is the lovely diamond
 Lying on your card.

Will you put it on, now?
 It is wondrous bright.
 It is cold, but lovely
 Like the star-strewn night.

Will you wear it always
 As a token fair?
 Love's not like a diamond
 To the loving pair.

Why is it a token
 Of love's pledges done?
 Love is vibrant—living—
 A ruby's just the one.

Yes, I've brought a diamond
 For what matters it
 What kind of stone you're wearing?
 Love our eyes have lit.

SO ROUND and FIRM and FULLY PACKED that's why you'll find Luckies do not dry out

Luckies use the mildest tobaccos—for Luckies use only the clean center leaves—and these are the mildest leaves. They taste better. Then science plays its part in making these choice tobaccos truly kind to your throat. "It's toasted"—for throat protection. These mellow, fine-tasting tobaccos are cut into long, silky, full-bodied shreds and fully packed into every Lucky—so round, so firm, free from loose ends. That's why Luckies "keep in condition"—why you'll find that Luckies do not dry out, an important point to every smoker. You see, always in all-ways—Luckies are kind to your throat.
