

HOME CHURCH AUXILIARY SERVES CHICKEN SUPPER

Last Friday night, September 28, between the house of 6 and 8 o'clock, the Woman's Auxiliary of the Home Moravian Church served a delicious barbecue chicken supper on the church lawn at the rear of the Rondthaler Memorial building. The supper was given under the direction of Mrs. T. Holt Haywood, the president of the auxiliary and of her committees. Members of the social committee turned waitresses for the night, while Mrs. W. L. Siewers and Mrs. Charles Reid devoted themselves to arranging the menu, and all those who attended the supper acclaimed the success of their arrangement.

This supper, which is an annual event, and which was attended by many people of this city, was given for the benefit of the many worthy projects undertaken each year by the Auxiliary of the Home Moravian Church.

When love and skill work together expect a masterpiece.
