

Y.W.C.A. HELPING SUP- PORT ESKIMO ORPHAN

Two years ago one of the best Eskimo men in the service of the Moravian Missions in Alaska died of tuberculosis leaving his children orphans for their mother had been taken by the same disease several years before. One of these children, a little boy, was placed in the Moravian orphanage at Nunapitsingak, Alaska. Little Fritz Petluska (the child's name), is a rather bright lad for his family had lived as well and as civilized as most of the white people of the district. He had no one to support him at the orphanage, the annual cost for one child being $180. The Salem College Y. W. C. A. is contributing this year one third of the amount necessary to keep this twelve year old boy fed and warmly clothed.

A child thought neck and ears were one word. She washed her neck, but always forgot the ears. Say, you, wash your "neck'n'ears!"

FRESHMEN HEARD IN VESPERS

is not what we give, but what we share. We give only when we give ourselves.

It is true that we all cannot be missionaries, but we can be like the Good Samaritan; we can accept the responsibility of helping those who cross our paths daily. A life of service implies not the renouncing of our own lives, but the helping of others to live their lives more fully. We can bear one another's burdens at home, at school or wherever we may be. To love God involves not only the heart and soul, but also the mind and action. Elbert Hubbard said, "The only love we keep is what we give away."

Perhaps we say serving God involves too much, or we may say that people are not worth our help. It is true that serving God does involve a great deal—indeed there is no limit. It is also true that anyone who needs our help is worthy of it. The joy and satisfaction of sharing one's life with others—not sacrificing for another's indulgence, but giving creatively—is also limitless. It involves not merely the giving of our possessions but also the sharing of ourselves.

Even if Dr. Willoughby didn't get a part in the play "Op O Me Thumb," which will be given April 1st at Reynolds Auditorium she has had her leg in a cast long enough to feel like she has the lead. In spite of the thing, she's faithfully practicing with us every night.

WHEN YOU FEEL "FED UP"...

GET A LIFT
WITH A CAMEL!

"I'M SPECIALIZING IN HISTORY—French and English history," says Laurence Brewer. "In addition, I have a job in the library for four hours a day, and I also work up data and material for the debating team. I'll tell you—it keeps me going hard. I've got more work than time. When I'm hard pressed, smoking Camels is not only a pleasure—it's a help, too. For when I feel 'fed up'—and it seems as though my energy were all used up—I smoke a Camel and get a lift in energy. Camels have a swell, rich flavor; due, I presume, to the use of choicer tobaccos. I smoke as many as I want to—for Camels don't ruffle my nerves."

"I'M AN ENGINEER—working on the San Francisco-Oakland Bridge. Before that, six years in the army taught me the value of smoking a Camel when 'below par.' I smoke all the Camels I want, too, without getting jumpy nerves. And Camels are mild and gentle to the throat."

"EVERY WOMAN prefers a milder cigarette. For years I've been smoking Camels because they are mild—and at the same time have a delightful rich flavor. I know these things don't just happen in a cigarette. There must be a reason, and I think it lies in the fact that Camels use finer tobaccos."
