

There's something about a Chesterfield —

There's one thing I especially like about Chesterfields — entirely aside from the fact that it's a milder cigarette — and I've heard a number of people say the same thing ... While I'm smoking Chesterfield I never get little crumbs of tobacco in my mouth — the tobacco doesn't spill out and that adds a lot to my pleasure of smoking them ... I notice more and more of my friends smoke Chesterfields.

When in Durham
you are cordially invited to visit the Chesterfield factory and see Chesterfields made.

Chesterfields are Milder Chesterfields Taste Better

© 1935, LIGGETT & MYERS TOBACCO CO.

GERTRUDE SCHWALBE REPORTS ON FLORIDA CONFERENCE

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE)

to work with, we can imagine that it challenged him to make it more beautiful. We can also hear the master reply, "In you lies something hitherto unknown unless I release it." In us and in those around us lies something hitherto unknown unless we release it. As artists we work both without and within our material.

Another challenging statement that Dean Amos made was this: We are asked to answer yes or no to the following: I represent to the best of my ability what I think a college girl ought to be. Is we say so just where does that place us? It is well to speak of the art of living and to see if we live artfully, she said. We may ask ourselves by the following standards of measure:

1. Am I daily becoming more interested and satisfied in becoming an adult, that is, do I take the right attitude to critical judgment?
2. What beauty do I release thru respect for self?
3. What beauty do I release thru right respect for ideas—am I hospitable to new ideas?
4. What beauty do I release thru a right regard for people.
5. Do I conform to the ritual of manners—Among these do I relieve strain?

6. Do I have the right regard for things — do I keep my closet, drawers, and room clean?

These are challenging measures and worth the while of everyone to study.

Dr. Philip Davidson of Agnes Scott climaxed the addresses with a very forceful appeal to modern youth to become acquainted with current public affairs. All current events should be of tremendous interest to every individual, he stated, and once we know about them we are bound to be interested in them. I felt and still do feel tremendously ignorant.

Besides these formal addresses there were several discussion were most profitable for we talked together on dormitory and social problems, the technique of presidency, campus interest in public affairs, and campus honor. I hope to be able to carry out some of the suggestions I derived from these open meetings.

I was sorry that we could not have more than one delegate for several discussion groups were held at the same time.

I must not fail to mention the wonderful banquet that was given in our honor Friday night nor the good half hour we had of play night in the gym, nor our various bull sessions and meetings of so and so's friend that I met in camp years ago.

The next meeting will be held at Agnes Scott College and if the girls there can be one-half as hospitable as our hostesses were this year I will guarantee any delegate a wonderful time.

In case you want a sign language, code or what have you, to pass back and forth with your best pal, and one that lets all "inquisitives" out, try this:

Stand take to takings
 I you come all my
 Meaning, or Meinung: (I understand you undertake to over come all my undertakings.)