

Y. W. C. A. NEWS

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE) Scripture — Psalm 100 by Mary Hart Prayer. Solo — Spirit of God by Neidlinger Sung by Miss Porter Talk — by Bishop J. Kenneth Pfohl. Bishop's talk was centered around the thought from Dr. Samuel Johnson's Rasselas. Rasselas was a prince of Abyssinia who, though surrounded by happiness, could not be happy because he wanted to have a vision. Just as he, so must we have visions. The first one must be of good, the second of serving, and the third of Christ who makes the other two possible. The girls joined in the hymn immortal Lome, after which the service was closed with the Y Watchword.

Y. W. C. A. TEAS

Sunday afternoon about one hundred girls enjoyed the Y. Tea in the Recreation Room of Louisa Bitting Building. These teas are held every Sunday from 4 to 5 in the afternoon, and both boarding students and off-campus students are welcome.

Y. STORE

You can't be cute or smart or handy, When your middle's full of space. Come on down, buy cakes and candy, And your troubles you can face. P. S.—Wanted: A poetess on the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet.

The program committee has planned a series of Vesper Programs the general topic of which is "Christ In Me." Those who have read the Vesper program leaflet have seen the subjects for the four following Sundays:

- September 29—"Crucified with Christ." "I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I but Christ liveth in me." Gal. 2:20.
October 13—"Christ in Me. (1) Body."
October 20—"Christ in Me (2) Mind."
October 27—"Christ in Me. (3) Soul."

It might be well to explain that the Y. W. C. A. has for its symbol a triangle which typifies the three fold life in Christ — spiritual, mental, and physical. We would like all Salem girls to experience this life. It is our hope that as a consequence of these services girls will come to a realization that living without Christ is only existing. We live abundantly, purposefully, happily and eternally only with Christ in our lives.

Dr. G. Ray Jordan pastor of the Centenary Methodist Church of Winston-Salem will speak Sunday, September 29, on the topic "Crucified with Christ." Dr. Jordan is one of the outstanding ministers of the Methodist Church, and is thought of very highly by his present congregation. He is an excellent speaker, has written a number of books and is very interested in young people. We hope to see the Campus living room crowded with Salem girls next Sunday at 6:30.

STUDENTS ATTEND HOME CHURCH ON FIRST SUNDAY

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE) courage when Life says "You must." God and His Holy Word abide in our individual lives; Jesus Christ remains, and he is saying to us, "Come unto me, all ye that are weary and heavy laden, and I will give you rest." God's love is personified by Christ on the cross. Things are shaking in order that man-made things may perish, and the things that God has meant to be worthwhile will remain always.

The service closed with the hymn "As Long As Jesus Lord Remains," and the Salem girls went out from church, feeling that they had each found a real "Home" Church here.

Members of the faculty of Salem College were invited to have after-dinner coffee with Dr. and Mrs. Ancombe last Sunday.
