

SENIORS CELEBRATE HAT BURNING

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE)

- Louise Blum
- Agnes Brown
- Grace Carter
- Phyllis Clapp
- Mary Daniel
- Virginia Garner
- Amanda Holleman
- Melrose Hendrix
- Mota Hutchison
- Ruth Kuykendall
- Dorothy Lashmit
- Nancy McNeely
- Eugenia McNew
- Erika Marx
- Mary Mills
- Marian Mitchell
- Stephanie Newman
- Charlotta Ogburn
- Ada Pfohl
- Garnelle Rainey
- Susan Rawlings
- Josephine Reece
- Mary Elizabeth Reeves
- Dorothea Rights
- Jean Robinson
- Marjorie Robinson
- Martha Schlegel
- Margaret Sears
- Gertrude Schwalbe
- Bessie Shipp
- Mary Louise Shore

- Madeline Smith
- Janet Stimpson
- Virginia Thompson
- Lois Torrence
- Adelaide Trotter
- Etta Burt Warren
- Eleanor Watkins
- Betty Wilson
- Anna Withers
- Wilda Mae Yingling

The Marshals were:

- Ethel Highsmith
- Rose Siewers
- Libby Torrence
- Eloise Sample
- Helen Smith
- Wilena Couch
- Jo Hutchison
- Carolyn Pfohl
- Janice Raney

SALEM OBSERVES 400th ANNIVERSARY

(Continued From Page One)

In the history of the Moravian Church it is told how the brethren and sisters of old Moravia and Bohemia cherished their Bibles, and had to hide them in feather beds, under chair seats, or out in the woods under rocks or in tree crevices, to protect them against their destructors.

Then there is the accuracy of the Scriptures. The work of archaeolo-gists in the Holy Land has proved again and again the accuracy of the Word of God.

The sixth wonder, is that the book still holds inspiration for us as we read it today. To each one of us, if we read it in faith, it seems as though God were speaking to us now. It's not as though in reading the twenty-third Psalm, for instance, it meant "The Lord is David's Shepherd," but "The Lord is my Shepherd."

Then the last, and most blessed wonder of the Book is that it transforms life. It brings light, to those who read it, and puts purpose and meaning into life. This inspired John Newton to write the beautiful hymn:

Precious Bible; what a treasure
Does the word of God afford;
All I want for life or pleasure
Food and medicine, shield and sword;
Let the world account me poor,
Having this I need no more.

The list of prize winners at a recent picnic read:

"Mrs. Smith won the ladies' rolling pin contest by hurling a pin seventy-five feet.

"Mr. Smith won the hundred yard dash."

COMING THEATRE ATTRACTIONS AT CAROLINA

The Carolina Theatre promises an exciting bill of attractions for the next month or two. Many of the pictures have already been rated as among the best of the current year.

Next week Charles Boyer and Loretta Young will be on the screen in "Shanghai." If Charles Boyer lives up to the reputation he has made, the film will be an excellent one. Its theme is the old story of a Chinese's love for an American girl. An excellent cast supports the stars.

After "Shanghai," "O'Shaughnessy's Boy" will be presented, Jackie Cooper, Spanky MacFarlane, and Wallace Beery are in the cast.

October 14 and 15 will bring to the Carolina Theater Kay Francis in "Goose and the Gander." On the stage there will be Thurston, the world's greatest magician. During the remainder of the week the theatre will present Claudette Colbert in "She Married Her Boss."

The next week brings Bing Crosby and Joan Bennett in "Two for Tonight."

Next month will bring those two

I. R. S. COLUMN

Perhaps you'd like to know who comprises the I. R. S. Council. The list is incomplete because the Freshmen haven't elected their representatives and because two junior members didn't return this year.

The Council is:

President—Nancy McNeely.
Vice-President—Mary Mills.
Secretary and Treasurer — Louise Freeman.

Senior Representatives:

Jean Robinson, Garnelle Raney, Dorothea Rights, Etta Burt Warren, President of Senior Class.

Sophomore Representatives:

Bessie Lou Bray, Ethel Highsmith, President of Junior Class.

Sophomore Representatives:

Virginia Lee, Margaret Briggs, Frances Alexander, Eloise Sample, President of Sophomore Class.

top-notchers "Top Hat" and "Big Broadcast" which are quite full of song hits and stars. Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers need no introduction to cinema fans, and they go to town in their new picture, according to all reports.

Outstanding

"OMAHA"—Winner, one after the other, of the Kentucky Derby, the Preakness, and the Belmont

Omaha is an outstanding horse today.

And in the cigarette world Chesterfield is outstanding.

Both won their place strictly on merit.

Apply any test you like—Chesterfields stand for the best there is in cigarettes.

They are milder . . . yet they let you know you're smoking. They taste better—give you real pleasure.

Outstanding

.. for mildness
.. for better taste

CHESTERFIELD CIGARETTES
LIGGETT & MYERS TOBACCO CO.