

THE REV. WALSER ALLEN SPEAKS AT VESPERS

Closes Series of Talks On "Christ In Me"

The Rev. Walser Allen, pastor of the Moravian Church in Kernersville, spoke at the "Y" Vespers, Sunday evening, November 3. He closed the series of talks on "Christ in Me." On October 13, Miss Carrie Lee Weaver spoke on "Christ in my Body," on October 20 Dr. Minnie Smith spoke on "Christ in my Mind," and this past Sunday Mr. Allen talked on "Christ in my Soul," using for his text Matthew 16, 26. "for what is a man profited, if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul?" The truth of this text is revealed in the parable of the rich young man who had so much fruit and grain that he didn't know where to store it, so he said, "This will I do: I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and there will I bestow all my fruits and my goods, And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry. But God said unto him, Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee, then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided? So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God."

A man's life does not consist in the abundance of his possessions. God was justified in calling the rich young man a fool for several reasons. First, he ignored God entirely in respect to his possessions. He forgot that there isn't a thing in this world that he had absolute ownership of. Without air, or rain, or sunshine he couldn't have harvested a bit of grain or fruit yet he didn't feel a bit indebted to God for any of these gifts. All man possesses originated with God and He asks for only one-tenth of man's possessions and for one-seventh of his time. Those who willingly set aside this fraction of time and money can be sure of God's blessing. The second reason why the man was a fool was because he ignored God's blessing.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE FOUR)

"THE TRYSTING PLACE" PRESENTED IN CHAPEL

Booth Tarkington's Play Given Under Direction Of Mrs. Downs

Booth Tarkington's well-known comedy, "The Trysting Place," was presented in expanded chapel at Salem College last Wednesday by the class in play production, taught by Mrs. John Downs.

Choosing a farcical comedy as their first dramatic vehicle, the Play Production class presented a delightful and refreshing performance. "The Trysting Place," which has to do with the amusing actions that occur in a secluded lobby of a country hotel, is a justly famous one-act comedy by Tarkington. In "The Trysting Place," as well as in his other writings, Tarkington depicts the modern adolescent cleverly and sympathetically. In this particular play, Lancelot Briggs is the awkward boy who has become infatuated with Mrs. Curtis.

The cast of characters was: Lancelot, Anna Wray Fogle; Mrs. Curtis, Nancy Schallert; Jessie, Garnelle Raney; Rupert, Louise Preas; Mrs. Briggs, Mary Elizabeth Reeves; Mr. Ingoldsby, Gertrude Schwalbe; and the Mysterious Voice, Jane Rondthaler.

The play was directed by Mrs. Downs, and those members of the Play Production Class not acting in the play were in charge of make-up, scenery, etc.

FAMOUS BARITONE HEARD IN BRILLIANT CONCERT MONDAY

John Charles Thomas Opens Fifth Season of Music Association

John Charles Thomas, famous American baritone, was heard in concert, Monday, November 4, 1935, at the Richard J. Reynolds Memorial Auditorium. His program was both heavy and light, and his technique and diction unsurpassable.

Mr. Thomas was ably accompanied by Mr. Carroll Hollister, who also played a group of solos.

The program was as follows:

Widmung	Franz
Air from "Comus"	Arne
Der Tod, das ist die kühle Nacht	Brahms
Gebet	Marx
Drei Wandrer	Hermann
.....	Mr. Thomas
Bouree	Bach-Saint-Saens
La Cathedrale Englantie	Debussy
Clog Dance, "Handel on the Strand"	Grainger
.....	Mr. Hollister
Phydlie	Duparc
L'Intruse	Fevrier
Me suis mise en danse	Bax
Quelle Souffrance	Lenormend
Recitative and Aria: Salome	Massenet
The Bonnie Earl O'Maray	Arr. by Kreisler
There is Ladye	Bury
Bob White	Wolfe
The Sussex Sailor	Charles
When I Think Upon the Maidens	Head
.....	Mr. Thomas

FELLOWSHIP FOR GRADUATE STUDY OFFERED

Graduate Scholarship Offered By Social Science Research Council

A new type of fellowship for which college seniors may apply is announced by the Social Science Research Council, an organization representing the national social science organizations. This is a fellowship granted to aid first-year graduate students who wish to devote themselves to professional careers in economics, government, history, or the other social sciences.

The fellowships provide a basic stipend of $1,000, plus tuition and an allowance of one round trip between the Fellow's home and his place of study. It is expected that Fellows with a superior record will be reappointed, so that they may be aided throughout their entire graduate training. No appointee may choose the institution from which he received his bachelor's degree for study, while holding this type of award; but the Council will advise him in the selection of the university best suited to his interests.

The basis of selection will be full academic and personal records of the candidates, supporting letters from instructors qualified to write of the candidate's research progress, and written examinations which will be offered through the College Entrance Examination Board. These will include examinations in the reading of French and German, in elementary mathematics, and in social science.

Each candidate must submit a letter from the Chairman of the department in which he has pursued his major under-graduate study in support of his application before blanks will be sent to him. Seniors who may be interested should request that such a letter be sent to the Fellowship Secretary, the Social Science (CONTINUED ON PAGE FOUR)

DR. ANSCOMBE LECTURES ON WORLD PEACE

"Governmental Effort Toward Peace, the League of Nations" Is Topic

Dr. Ancombe was the third speaker in the series of talks sponsored by the World Fellowship Committee of the Y. W. C. A. His topic was: "Governmental Efforts Toward Peace."

Up until 100 years ago the nations of the world lived to themselves, not trying to make the world a unit. Roosevelt, Taft, and Harding all thought about an organization similar to the League of Nations to enforce peace, but Wilson was really the first to take hold of the idea and develop it, weaving it into the peace treaty.

The League is well organized with its council, assembly, secretariat and permanent court. The council of the assembly is composed of two houses. The upper house is composed of nine

(CONTINUED ON PAGE THREE)

Y. W. C. A. FAIR

You will hear some swiny rhythm
When you walk into the gate
Come and have your fortune told,
And eat hot dogs while you wait.

Forget your diet for the night
And eat good "eats" to your heart's content,
In the Hall of Horrors you'll get a thrill,
Romp around till your money's spent.

Go boating on the pool 'neath a full moon — get autographed hankies — see the exhibits and the Rogue's Gallery (you may be surprised to find your own picture there) — and, by all means dress up "countrified" — COME TO THE FAIR!

8:30 CHAPEL

GERMAN CLUB GIVES GERMAN SONG PROGRAM IN CHAPEL

The Deutsche Verein gave an interesting program of typical German songs in Chapel on Friday, November 1st. Miss Vaughn explained the German folk-music, and the members of the club sang a song typical of each kind.

The following selections were given: "Wanderlust," a song of the German wanderer; "Du, du, liegst mir im Herzen," a German love song; "Die Gedanken sind frei," a student song; "Ade zur guten Nacht," one of the many songs Germans have for parting; and "Zigeunerlied," a gypsy song.

The president of the German Club is Ada Pfohl, and the Secretary-Treasurer is Josephine Ritter. Together with Miss Vaughn, they are working out plans for a Volk-tanz Stunde, an hour of German folk-dancing, for the meetings in November; and a Christmas program is being planned for December.

DR. ANSCOMBE SPEAKS ON "PARABLES"

Dr. Ancombe talked on the "Parables of Jesus" Tuesday morning Nov. 5. He told the story and moral of the following parables: The Seed, Yeast, Hidden Treasure, and The Merchant who went out to buy pearls.

He compared the seed with the Kingdom of Heaven, because both have life. He said that the spirit of Jesus will work through society just as yeast will work through bread.

SENIORS ENTERTAINED AT PARTY SATURDAY NIGHT NOVEMBER 2

Miss Lawrence and Miss Riggan Honor Seniors

On Saturday, November 2, the Seniors were entertained at a lovely party given in the Recreation Room of the Louisa Wilson Biting Building. The room was attractively decorated with freshly cut fall flowers. To greet the guests were Dean and Mrs. Charles G. Vardell, Misses Grace Lawrence and Katherine J. Riggan. Dancing was enjoyed throughout the evening and the music was furnished by a five piece orchestra. Later, the guests were invited into the Little Dining Room which was comfortably arranged and beautifully decorated. There, with Mrs. Vardell presiding at the table, the following delicious refreshments were served: chicken salad, sandwiches, tarts, nuts, candies, and coffee. The Senior Marshals who assisted in the dining room and served punch in the Recreation Room were: Misses Josephine Hutchison, Caroline Pfohl, Helen Smith, Ethel Highsmith and Elizabeth Torrence. The seniors and their guests present were:

Misses Mary Nelson Anderson, McArn Best, Louise Blum, Agnes Brown, Phyllis Clapp, Mary Daniel, Virginia Garner, Marianna Hooks, Meta Hutchison, Dorothy Lashmit, Katherine McCall, Nancy McNeely, Marion Mitchell, Stephanie Newman, Ada Pfohl, Garnelle Raney, Susan Rawlings, Josephine Reece, Mary Elizabeth Reeves, Dorothea Rights, Jean Robinson, Marjorie Robinson, Gertrude Schwalbe, Madeline Smith,

(CONTINUED ON PAGE FOUR)

NATIONAL YOUTH ADMINISTRATION PROGRAM

By Walter Cutter Executive Assistant Director of North Carolina

The beginning of the functioning of the National Youth Administration's program has a timely significance for every college student. The general state of our national affairs, economic and social, makes it imperative for every individual, in or out of college to apply his best thought to the solution of those problems which confront us today.

It is certainly true that what is needed more than any one thing is a revival of self-dependence. Dependence is likely to be lost in time of national stress. The government's intervention in the field of youth activities reveals clearly the need for thought about tomorrow, lest we should develop a habit of receiving outside aid, and lose this virtue of self-dependence.

The program of the Youth Administration has a number of departments. There is the general program of student aid, which includes aid to students from 16-25, below the college level, aid to college students, and aid to graduate students. Further, two general classes of projects may be put into force, manual projects for those having practical skills, or who can develop such skills, and research, statistical and technical projects for those having the requisite training and possibilities.

A whole section of the Federal Government's educational effort is devoted to adult education of many kinds; a systematic attack on illiteracy; workers' education; dramatic activities and nursery schools. Teachers and directors in these programs will be utilized for youth groups wherever possible.

College students are being asked (CONTINUED ON PAGE THREE)

COLLEGE CONFERENCE HELD IN DURHAM

Theme Is Relation of Colleges To Professional Schools

The fifteenth annual meeting of the North Carolina College Conference was held Wednesday, November 9, at the Washington-Duke Hotel in Durham.

The central theme of the conference was the relation of colleges to the professional schools. At the eleven o'clock session the relation of colleges to medical schools was discussed, and the topic for the two o'clock session was "The Relation of Colleges to Schools of Law."

At the luncheon meeting of the North Carolina Registrar's Association, Miss Marian Blair, of Salem College, spoke on "Transfers from Junior Colleges and Other Institutions."

Mr. McEwen represented Salem at the Directors of Extension Meeting at five o'clock.

The final session of the Conference was at eight o'clock in the ballroom of the Washington-Duke Hotel. At that time Mr. Clyde A. Irvin, Superintendent of Public Instruction in North Carolina, delivered the address.

The officers of the conference are: President, Mr. H. R. Omwake of Catawba College; vice-president, Mr. W. C. Jaegson of the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina; secretary-treasurer, Mr. N. W. Walker, of the University of North Carolina; acting secretary-treasurer, Mr. James E. Hillman of the State Department of Public Instruction.

Those representing Salem at the conference were Miss Grace Lawrence, Miss Marian Blair, Mr. Noble McEwen, and Mr. Albert Oerter.

WILLENA COUCH WINS IN TENNIS TOURNAMENT

Successful Tennis Season Ends

Willena Couch, last year's tennis champion, successfully defended her title Friday afternoon against Sarah Katherine Thompson, winning two consecutive sets, 6-1, 7-5.

During the second set Miss Thompson broke through Miss Couch's serve to gain a lead of 4-1. After twelve hard-fought game, the result was 7-5, in favor of Miss Couch.

Miss Couch is a Winston-Salem girl. She has played in several tournaments prior to this one. Among them was the City Tournament in the summer of 1934, which she won. Her experience has consisted of playing tennis for some years now; being on the high school team, of which she was the captain two years; and, in the past summer, a tennis counselor at camp Ton-a-wandah.

However, tennis is not the only sport in which Miss Couch is outstanding. She says she enjoys all sports, but plays no favorites among hockey, basketball and tennis. For tennis, she prefers shorts to a skirt, and uses a light weight racquet.

Sports do not hold all of Willena's attention, though, as she enjoys dancing and music. Miss Couch is a music student, majoring in piano.