

PATRONIZE
SALEMITE
ADVERTISERS

The Salemite

PATRONIZE
SALEMITE
ADVERTISERS

VOL. XVII.

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1936.

Number 7.

PRESIDENT AND MRS. RONDTHALER HONOR SENIORS Dinner Given on Saturday Evening

One of the most important events of the college year was the senior dinner given by Dr. and Mrs. Howard E. Rondthaler on Saturday evening honoring the class of 1937.

Covers were laid for one hundred and twenty guests in the college dining room. The tables were decorated with yellow and bronze chrysanthemums. The Hallowe'en motif was carried out in the place cards, favors, and in the huge cake made by Gustaf Bruner.

Guests were met in Main Hall, where the dinner procession was formed. Helping Dr. and Mrs. Rondthaler to receive, were Miss Grace Lawrence, Miss Katherine Riggan, A. T. Curlee, senior class advisor and Mrs. Curlee and Miss Cortlandt Preston.

Music was provided for the dinner by Miss Virginia Thompson, Rebecca Brame, Harriet Taylor, and Katherine Snead.

The list of guests included: Kathleen Alexander, Eloise Baynes, Rebecca Baynes, Dolly Blair, Freida Blumenthal, Carolyn Byrum, Alma Cline, Virginia Crumpler, Caroline Diehl, Helen Diehl, Sara Easterling, Mary Ruth Elliot, Viola Farthing, Georgia Goodson, Alice Lee Googe, Mary Hart, Mary Louise Haywood, Mary Frances Hayworth, Ethel Highsmith, Sara Ingram Helen Jones, Josephine Klutz, Jane Leibfried, Cordelia Lowry, Katherine McColl, Eloise McCorkle, Bernice McIver, Hazel McMahan, Frances Meadows, Virginia Neeley, Ruth Norman, Corine Pate, Carolyn Rackliffe, Jo Ritter, Jane Rondthaler, Frances Salley, Jeanette Sawyer, Sara Sherwood, Katherine Sissell, Rose Siewers, Katherine Smith, Mary Snipes, Margaret Stafford, Sara Stevens, Arnice Topp, Libby Torrence, Lalya Tucker, Margaret Vass, Josephine Whitehead, Anna Withers, Louise Wureschke, Virginia Gough, Jane Crow, Margaret Crist, Virginia Council.

Charlie Jenkins, Bill Davis, Brainard Rorison, James Blair, Albert Blumenthal, John Davis, Richard Hine, Dial Gray, Pete Walker, Tyler Port, Aaron Cornwall, John Creech, B. C. Dunford, Arnim Francke, Clarence Speight, James Copeland, Claud Sawyer, Brooks Bynum, Frank Campbell, Joe Stockton, John Foster, Paul Mickey, Meade Willis, Clarence Brown, Bill Coan, Garrison Reid, Ned Heefner, Harry Shauer, George Stockton, Frank Watson, Tommy Wilson, Hugh Miller, John Glenn, George Kesner, Ed Blackwood, Gaither Jenkins, Jack Clayton, Raymond Breitz, Tom Old, Jimmie Coan, John Ogburn, Louis Paladine, John Watlington, William Crow, Oscar Hege, Ben Trotter, John Lowrey, Colin Stokes, J. B. Goslen, William Watkins, Nick Mitchell, Frank Wilson, Frank Willingham, Louis Shaffner, David Wureschke, L. C. Bruce, Gordon Spaugh, Horace Vance and Dr. and Mrs. Rondthaler, Mr. and Mrs. Curlee, Miss Riggan, Miss Lawrence, and Miss Preston.

Miss Libby Jerome is requesting all students who have Octagon Soap, Knox Gelatine or Rumford Baking Powder coupons to save them for the Living Endowment Fund of Salem. 2,500 are needed during the next two months. The co-operation of everyone in this worthwhile enterprise will be appreciated. Day students may give their coupons to Helen Diehl.

EDITOR AND ASSOCIATE ATTEND N.C.C.P.A. MEET Successful Meeting Held In Charlotte

Sara Ingram and Katherine Sissell represented the "Salemite" at the North Carolina Collegiate Press Convention in Charlotte, October 21, 22, and 23. Davidson College was host.

Thursday afternoon registration was held, followed by an informal reception and welcome by Frederick Smith, Alumni secretary of Davidson.

On Friday morning a short general meeting was held, followed by group discussions, including newspaper editors, magazine editors, annual editors, and business managers.

Following these there was a luncheon in Chambers Auditorium with Mr. F. L. Jackson, treasurer of the college as speaker. Friday afternoon delegates attended the Davidson-Duke freshman football game.

On Friday night a banquet was held in the Hotel Charlotte ballroom.

Legette Blythe of the Charlotte Observer staff, was the speaker. Governor Olin Johnson of South Carolina made a brief speech.

On Saturday morning the final business session was held. Plans were made for a spring meeting to be held in High Point.

This was the thirty-second annual conversation of the N. C. C. P. A. The following colleges were represented: Davidson, Duke, Wake Forest, North Carolina State, Meredith, Flora McDonald, Queens-Chicago, W. C. U. N. C., Guilford, High Point, E. C. T. C., Appalachian State and Salem.

Officers for this year are James Mason, Wake Forest, president; Pete Thrie, State, vice-president, Mary Morris Terry, secretary, Flora McDonald and Herbert Upchurch, Duke, treasurer.

CHRISTOPHER MORLEY TO SPEAK HERE

Famous Author To Lecture November 13

Christopher Morley, famous author and humorist will lecture here Friday night, November 13, in Memorial Hall. Mr. Morley's visit is being sponsored by the faculty of the college and academy.

Morley was born in Haverford, Pa. in 1890. His parents are English. Morley graduated from Haverford College, and having won the Rhodes Scholarship to Oxford, spent three years at New College in England. Here he wrote his first book "The Eighth Sin."

Upon his return to America he married Helen Booth Fairchild.

He has published forty-seven books including: "Parnassus on Wheels," "The Haunted Bookshop," "Enchanted April," "Where The Blue Begins" and "Thunder on the Left."

Mr. Morley now conducts "The Bowling Green," column in the Saturday Review of Literature.

COMMUNITY SING HELD MONDAY NIGHT

A Community Sing was held Monday night sponsored by the Matilda Ward Class of the Home Moravian Sunday School.

A part of the program included: "Vagabond" Vanderlip "She Wants Simple Gifts".....Martin "The Countryman" (Warlock) by Clifford Bair, head of the voice department.

"Lift Thine Eyes" from "Elijah" by Jane Rondthaler, Frances Watlington, and Rosalind Duncan.

DR. RONDTHALER HAS PART IN WESLEYAN ANNIVERSARY Is Speaker At Banquet

Dr. Howard Rondthaler attended Wesleyan College's hundredth anniversary celebration at Macon, Georgia, on Friday. Forty college presidents and two hundred delegates from all over the United States were present. Mr. Noble McCracken, of Vassar, was the principal speaker.

One of the most impressive features of the celebration was the procession formed on the Wesleyan campus Friday afternoon. Administrative heads followed each other in the order of the founding of their various schools, with Harvard University, founded in 1636, leading. Dr. Rondthaler representing Salem, founded in 1772, stood fourth in line. Each executive was announced by means of a loudspeaker as he came up the steps of the main building to be greeted by President Dice Enderson of Wesleyan, together with the trustees and principal speakers.

Dr. Rondthaler was one of the speakers at the banquet given Friday night.

ALMUNAE EXECUTIVE MEETING HELD

Mrs. Hartness of Raleigh Presides

Mrs. James Hartness of Raleigh, President of the Alumnae Association of Salem College, presided over the executive meeting and luncheon in Louisa Wilson Biting Building, on Friday, October 30th, from one until three o'clock. Officers of the general association, presidents of the local branches, and numerous other guests were present.

After the attractive luncheon, which Miss Stockton planned, was served, the members of the council discussed plans for the coming year. Mrs. Hartness presented the question of amending the constitution. Dean Vardell discussed the development of the Glee Club into a traveling unit which would be prepared to present programs in cities throughout the state and at future alumnae activities. Miss Elizabeth Jerome, chairman of the coupon committee, reported the advancement in her field. Miss Cortlandt Preston introduced new publicity plans and talked about the project under the auspices of the college and academy faculty to bring more famous speakers to Salem. Salem alumnae, faculty, and students will be interested to know that the first of these programs will be a lecture by Christopher Morley, well-known American humorist and writer, on Friday, November 13th.

After the meeting was adjourned, the guests were invited to walk over

(Continued On Page Four)

OFFICERS OF SCRIBBLERS' CLUB ARE ELECTED

Officers of the Scribblers' Club of Salem Academy were elected at a meeting Monday. The Scribblers' Club was organized as an outlet for creative writing. It sponsors contests and publishes a paper several times a year, The Quill Pencil. Members are chosen by the English department.

The following officers were elected: Leonora Rice, President; Anna Biting Whitaker, vice-president; Dorothy Ann Myers, secretary-treasurer.

There are twenty-two members of the club. Miss Jesse Byrd is faculty adviser.

HOME EC. CLUB SPONSORS PROGRAM Given At South Park School

The Katherine Jane Hanes Home Economics Club presented the first in a series of Home Betterment Programs to the Parent-Teacher group at South Park School, Wednesday afternoon, October 28. Mrs. Charles Griffith gave a very interesting talk on flowers and their arrangement, pointing out a few simple rules which are easily followed and are a great deal of help to individuals inexperienced in handling flowers. There were twenty-five containers of fall flowers, all very lovely, and Mrs. Griffith pointed out why each one was good and the best way to make it attractive. A good many of the flower containers were loaned for the occasion by Woolworth's ten cent store, thus enabling Mrs. Griffith to show how inexpensive containers can be used to the best advantage.

Miss Sara Sherwood, senior Home Economics student at Salem, gave a very good talk on table arrangement and table etiquette, giving an interesting list of 'do's' and 'don'ts' for children while they are eating. In the center of the room were three tables, one set for breakfast, one for luncheon, and one for dinner. They were all set correctly and with inexpensive china and glass. The breakfast table was especially attractive. It was set with bright yellow crockery plates, cups and saucers, bone handled' cutlery, and white linen with yellow borders. The center piece was a low bowl of gourds and pine cones.

The Home Economics Club will sponsor three other programs at South Park School this year. The next one will be on foods work.

DEAN VARDELL GIVES PROGRAM

At Asheville Friday

Dean Vardell, who was invited to speak and to present a program of his own compositions, was the guest of the Saturday Morning Music Club, of Asheville, Friday, October 23, at "Homewood," home of Mrs. Robert Carroll.

He first addressed the club on "Present Day Tendencies Among Southern Composers," and then played some of his original compositions among which were the new "Ballade in E flat minor," for the first time in public appearance.

He also presented a few of the numbers from the suite, "From a Mountain Walk" which consists of six pieces in dance form.

Dean Vardell is recognized as one of America's outstanding young composers. Dr. Hans Kindler, director of the National Symphony Orchestra of Washington, D. C., recently included Dean Vardell's "Joe Clark Steps Out," one of his most popular compositions, in a program which was devoted entirely to work of American composers, and invited Mr. and Mrs. Vardell to attend.

HARLEQUIN CLUB MEETS AT ACADEMY

The Harlequin Club of Salem Academy met Monday for the election of officers. Jane Walker was chosen president; Jacqueline Miller, vice-president; Nancy Millan, secretary-treasurer.

The club is planning to give its first performance during National Book Week.

MISS COVINGTON WAS SPEAKER AT ACADEMY CHAPEL Discusses Types of Girls

Miss Evabelle Covington was the speaker at Academy Chapel on Monday morning. She gave an instructive talk on "Types of Girls I have Known."

She discussed the necessity of students making new adjustments, and the effect of orderly surroundings on pleasant thinking. Attitude was discussed as important to everyone and having definite bearing on one's whole life. Miss Covington defined a "wonderful" girl as one who combined attractive looks with a keen sense of fair play and a high sense of honor.

She gave to the students this axiom for success — be willing to give and take. Effort is of great benefit, even though one does not succeed. Courage and perseverance are necessary in the face of all difficulties.

Miss Covington was introduced by Caroline Gray, member of the Academy chapel committee.

FACULTY ADVISORY BOARD HONORED

Y. W. C. A. Entertains Wednesday

The committee chairman of the Y. W. C. A. entertained Wednesday evening at a dinner party for the members of the faculty advisory board. Hallowe'en was the theme for decorations and entertainment. It was only after walking under an ill-forging ladder that the guests were allowed to enter the dining room to find their places at tables arranged around a roaring open fire. Jack-o'-lanterns grinned fiery smiles from the window sills and on the table were pumpkins and black cats and witches — all the symbols of Hallowe'en—as centerpieces. Candle light and weird music made the effect complete.

After a delightful dinner which was begun by a toast to the Y. W. C. A. with glasses of apple cider, the chairman of the various committees informally presented to the advisors their plans for the year, and in return received advice.

Student chairmen present were Mary Francis Hayworth, president; Mary Hart, vice-president and Student Volunteer committee; Jean Knox, secretary; Arnice Topp, World Fellowship committee; Virginia

(Continued On Page Four)

MISCHA LEVITSKI IS TO GIVE CONCERT

To Be Presented By Civic Music Association

On Monday evening, November 2, at 8:30 o'clock, in the Reynolds Auditorium, the Civic Music Association will present Mischa Levitski, world renowned pianist, in the following program:

Chromatic Fantasy and Fugue Bach
Sonata in one movement Scarlatti
Sonata, Opus 57 (Appassionata) Beethoven
Rhapsody, G minor Brahms
Warumf Schumann
Aufschuring Schumann
Two Preludes, A major, F. major Chopin
Scherzo, C sharp major Chopin
The Enchanted Nymph (Ballot Music) Levitski
Jeux d' Eau (The Fountain) Ravel
La Campanella Paganini-Liszt