

COMMENCEMENT WEEK WILL BEGIN WEDNESDAY, JUNE 1

The senior dinner, which is to be held on June 3rd, is always a very secret affair and no outsider is ever supposed to know what goes on during the meal. It has been rumored, however, that each senior who is to be married in the near future leaves her place and runs around the table, thus announcing her engagement.

ALUMNAE DAY

Saturday, June 4th, will be Alumnae Day. At 11:00 a. m., the Alumnae Board will meet in the Trustee's room, and from 11:00 to 12:00, class reunions will be held. The general Alumnae business meeting will take place at 12 o'clock in the assembly hall of the library. The Alumnae Luncheon is at 1:30 in the college dining room. Saturday night at 8:30, the annual commencement concert will be presented in Memorial Hall. This concert is to be followed by the President's reception in Main Hall at 10 o'clock.

BACCALAUREATE SERVICE

The Baccalaureate service on Sunday, June 5th, will be held in the Home Moravian Church. Bishop Robert E. Gribbin, of Asheville, N. C., is to be the speaker. At 5:30 on Sunday afternoon, a buffet supper will be given on the President's lawn for the alumnae, seniors, and their guests. Senior vespers will take place at 7 o'clock on Upper Campus.

The climax of all these ceremonies will come on Monday, June 6th Commencement Exercises. At 11:00 o'clock the college bell will be rung and the commencement procession will enter Memorial Hall. The order of procession is to be as follows: administration, guests of honor, the speaker, marshalls, seniors faculty and alumnae.

COMMENCEMENT ADDRESS

The Commencement address this year will be given by Dr. Taliaferro Thompson of Richmond, Va. During this ceremony, college and class honors will be announced, and degrees conferred upon the members of the graduating class. Thus will end the college days of Salem's Class of '38.
