

The Salemite

Published Weekly By The Student Body of Salem College

Member Southern Inter-Collegiate Press Association

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE : : $2.00 a Year : : 10c a Copy

Member Associated Collegiate Press National Advertising Service, Inc. College Publishers Representative 420 MADISON AVE. NEW YORK, N. Y. CHICAGO · BOSTON · LOS ANGELES · SAN FRANCISCO

EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT

Editor-In-Chief Sara Harrison
Associate Editor Katharine King

EDITORIAL STAFF

News Editor Muriel Brietz
Sports Editor Sue Forrest
Music Editor Helen Savage
Faculty Adviser Miss Marian Blair

Staff Assistants:—
Frances Angelo Carrie Donnell Anne Mewborne
Pat Barrow Sallie Emerson Johnnie Moore
Louise Bralower Marie Fitzgerald Nancy O'Neal
Jo Ann Brill Billie Hanes Lucile Paton
Eleanor Carr Eleanor Hutchison Betsy Spach
Carolyn Creson Leila Johnston Marie Van Hoy
Dorothy Dixon Martha Jones Mary Worth Walker

FEATURE STAFF

Feature Editor Madeleine Hayes
Staff Assistants:—
Eugenia Baynes Melba Mackie Nancy Suiter
Elinor Betscher Lena Winston Morris Reece Thomas
Edith Horsfield Marian Norris Elizabeth Weldon

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

Business Manager Virginia Breakell
Assistant Business Manager Betsy Hobby
Advertising Manager Ella Walker Hill
Exchange and Circulation Manager Ruth Schnedl

ADVERTISING STAFF

Edna Baugham Mildred Kelly Louisa Sloan
Marvel Campbell Jane Kirk Lucille Springer
Nancy Chesson Margaret Patterson Ruth Yancey
Avalon Early Dorothy Sisk Lizzie Sartin
Katherine Swavely Rachel Sides Lib Nelson
Melba Mackie Ruth Thomas Helen Leinback
Eloise Rhodes Becky Candler Betsy O'Neal
Polyanna Evans Mabel Pitzer Barbara Wood
Martha Hine Marian Johnson

EXCHANGE AND CIRCULATION STAFF

Dorothy McLean Barbara Norman Lilla Dale Rosenbloom
Margaret Morrison Mattie Mae Reavis Katherine Snavely

FRESHMEN AT SOPHOMORE COURT

"Ah wad some power the giftie gie us to see ourselves as ithers see us." A large number of freshmen were perhaps thinking just that thought on Sophomore Court night; they would probably like to have a sophomore's eye-view of themselves. Since even the sophomores have hearts, the class of '42 has to break down and confess that the freshmen were very good sports during the entire affair. As a matter of fact, only through the splendid co-operation of the freshmen were the sophomores able to have the court. Many thanks to you, freshmen; the sophomores salute you!

—R. T.

HER FLOWERS ARE PART OF SALEM

"I wonder who sent Dr. Phelps those beautiful flowers." A visitor asked this question, of course; because Salem girls would know that Miss Anna is our florist. What seems to be her magic touch in growing things is really an accumulation of years of experience. Months of painstaking care go into the making of those beautiful bouquets that are always in Main Hall, the Library, the dining room, and on the stage for speakers.

Flowers not only add life and color to our buildings, but also are "the making" of back campus. Think what the campus would look like were the flowers suddenly taken away! To make many different kinds of flowers grow in such small plots requires ingenuity and hard work.

Pause a little longer as you go through Main Hall or walk around back campus, and really look at the works of art created by Miss Anna's genius.

—A. M.

LIBRARY NEWS

If you have missed the last number of your favorite magazine from its place in the Reading Room, you will probably find it in the Browsing Room. Here you can relax in a comfortable chair and browse to your heart's content over the following current issues:

- American Magazine.
- Arts and Decoration
- Connoisseur
- Good Housekeeping
- Life
- New Yorker
- Newsweek
- Saturday Evening Post
- State.

Do you enjoy reading a weekly which presents well-illustrated comments on current events, politics, drama, science, literature, art, etc.? Then you will certainly enjoy the two foreign weeklies — the "Illustrated London News" and "L'Illustration." They do not arrive in the Library until several weeks after date of publication, but it is extremely interesting to note the same news treated from the English and the French standpoint.

Below is a list of periodicals which are now coming regular to the Library for the first time.

- American Journal of Archaeology.
- American Journal of Philosophy.
- Contemporary Review.
- Monthly, published in London.
- Contains thoughtful articles on world affairs.
- Excellent literary department and book reviews.
- Foreign Affairs.
- Quarterly of unusual value to students in history and current events.
- Journal of American Medical Association.
- Journal of Educational Research
- Journal of Modern History.
- Journal of Nutrition.
- Modern Philology.
- Quarterly devoted to reasearch in medieval and modern literature.
- Nineteenth Century and After.
- Monthly, published in London.
- Covers a wide range of subjects of high literary merit.
- North American Review.
- Quarterly. Contains extended and thoughtful articles on literature history, economics, etc. also distinguished book reviews and poetry.
- Parents' Magazine.
- Monthly. Deals with problems of child training and understanding.
- Science News Letter.
- Weekly. A very useful digest and readable journal of scientific news in general.

Everybody knows that the "Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature" is the outstanding index for general and popular periodicals, mostly

(Continued On Page Four)

"Y" NEWS

Well freshmen, now that you have officially been made members of the "Y," why don't you come join some of our committees? They are all open to you, and we would certainly enjoy working with you. Now that Sophomore Court is over and we are all friends again and can work in peace and harmony, let's get together and work on a few of those "Y" committees. Just think — one Sunday very soon the "Y" cabinet members are going to teach Sunday school at the little colored church down the street. Don't you think that it would be fun? Come on, try it. We want you to help us teach, too. We also need a few more people in the "Y" choir. We know very well that there are lots of you with good voices who haven't joined the choir. Why not join this Sunday?

Don't forget Vespers Sunday night at 6:30 P. M. and Evening Watch next Thursday night at 10:00 P. M. The attendance for both of these services has been good, but we always welcome more.

FRED WARING and his famous Glee Club rehearsing his original Football Song for introduction on "Chesterfield Pleasure Time" over the Coast-to-Coast N. E. C. Network.

FRED WARING WRITES FOOTBALL SONG

Just recently a famous New York sports writer started his opening article on this year's football prospects wondering "what are the angles on the '39 season that set this Fall apart from any gridiron era, past or future?"

Well, we can say one new angle will certainly be the Friday Night Football Smoker which Fred Waring and his Pennsylvanians will broadcast over the National Broadcasting Company network as a week-end feature of his daily Chesterfield Pleasure Time series.

To Introduce Original Football Song Fred Waring's versatility and knack of being right in step with what goes on is well-known to all of us. For the pleasure of radio fans everywhere, Fred has been sitting up nights after his broadcasts working on a new and entirely original Football song. It's a stirring tune, with exciting and interesting lyrics, and it was given a coast-to-coast introduction on Friday evening, September 29. Fred promises a rousing salute to King Football every Friday evening and is going to use to the full every member of his huge and famous Chesterfield aggregation — the Glee Club, Orchestra, Paul Douglas, Poley (Frog Voice), McClintock, Donna (Adorable) Dae, Stue Churchill, Gordon Goodman, Patsy Garret, Jane (Glamour Girl) Wilson, the Two Bees and a Honey, the Les Paul Trio — about 60 Pennsylvanians in all, and every one an A-1 entertainer.

Has Own Theatre

Fred broadcasts Chesterfield Pleasure Time 5 nights a week — Mondays through Fridays — from a theatre which was taken over and equipped by National Broadcasting of out-of-town visitors who get the

(Continued On Page Four)

YOUR HOROSCOPE TELLS —

October 7 - 13

You are a kind and amiable friend, fond of animals, and have a great abhorrence of cruelty of any kind. But you have an overfondness for lighter pleasures and attractions of social life.

- October 7 — Nell Kerns.
- October 8 — Rebecca Anne Mitchell
- October 9 — Sarah Linn
- October 10 — Goldie Lefkowitz
Elsie Newman
- October 11 — Lillian Lanning
Ruth Yancey
- October 12 — Elihu Sloan
- October 13 — Helen Sams

FASHIONS? HERE THEY ARE —

If you didn't buy your winter coat before you came off to school, give your consideration to one of the new plain wools with separate fur boleros. When buying the coat it is advisable to get a matching wool dress, over which the fur bolero can be worn on mild days. With this one coat you get both a dress or sports type coat, and you have the satisfaction of being both smart and practical.

Perhaps you are one of the millions of unfortunates who are crying that they can't wear this year's hats. Probably the reason you can't wear them is that you're putting them on over last year's hair-do. Have you tried wearing your hair with the new scooped-up line from ear-tip to temple. Even if you find this style unbecoming for every day wear, try it the next time you put on your new chapeau.

For evening one of the prettiest coiffures we have seen is arranged by pulling the hair back from the temples to the tip top of the head and holding it there with a bow of velvet ribbon with long streamers. Across the forehead there should be a row of soft curls or a deep wave.

Then there's all this talk about bustle-backs, but perhaps you have a natural bustle of your own and don't want to add to it. Well, front fullness is just as smart and much easier to wear. Look for dresses with this fullness. The stores are full of them.

Perhaps you've read that slim, straight skirts are just as good as full ones. That's true for New York sophisticates, but not for the college crowd. If you hoped to keep on wearing an old straight skirt, don't try — just throw the thing away. Just a slight flare at the hem is enough, but the straight skirt is out.

You should know by now that the very long cardigan is news in the sweater world but very hard to wear. If you have that bustle back I was speaking of, I wouldn't buy more than ten or twelve of these cardigans, 'cause they're too hard to wear and are bound to go out of style soon.

Balbriggan has graduated from pajamas to evening gowns, I hear, and for its entrance into glamour circles it's very much bejeweled . . . the sheath silhouette is the thing for Winter festivities, and new dinner dresses are cover-up affairs, with sleeves to the wrists, high necks, and modeled lines . . . some are distinctively Victorian with lowered hip-treatment and bustles . . . an old-photograph look that is most appealing on the young things . . . Schiaparelli's brief white evening coats of tissue wool sound nice for the debutantes . . . they have a flourish of sequins at the throat . . . fur capelets with matching muffs are a luxury note . . . with long elegant stales for the sophisticated . . .

Company especially for the Pennsylvanians. It is located in the heart of New York's theatre district on West 48th Street and every broadcast night sees a crowd of ticket holders, sometimes stretching half a block long, waiting for the doors to open for Chesterfield Pleasure Time. A half-hour's special entertainment by the fun-making Pennsylvanians after the coast-to-coast broadcast has made it one of the most popular shows in New York City. A majority of the audience is usually made up

(Continued on Page Four)