

Ath-a-letic Sal

Hereafter when you girls win your monogram you'll have something to look forward to — at least, that's what the members of the newly formed Monogram Club tell us. They say they're really gonna do some fine "initiating" on you girls. Please hurry up with those 20 points, 'cause we can hardly wait to see the fun!

The monogram gals also decided to wear their monograms (and stars, in the case of Jane Kirk and Sallie Emerson), every Wednesday. They hope you'll be so jealous of them that you'll get energetic and make your letter too.

All the talk now is of the Duke and Carolina teams, but did you know that our Hockey Team also deserves praise? They went through their season (if you call the meets at Williamsburg and Greensboro a season) tied and beaten only once. We think that's pretty good, don't you?

A Kentucky undertaker's daughter who was sent to a fashionable boarding school? One of the girls asked her what business her father was in and she carelessly answered: "Oh, my father's a Southern planter."

LATIN CLUB HOLDS FIRST MEETING

On Thursday night, November 16, the Alpha Iota Pi, honorary Latin club, held its first formal meeting of the year in the recreation room of Louisa Wilson Biting Building. After the discussion of the business Dr. Downs spoke on "Vulgar Latin" — the language of the common people. He traced and illustrated the development of the modern romance languages from vulgar Latin. After the talk refreshments were served. Members of Freshman Latin classes were guests.

MR. McEWEN ADDRESSES LENOIR TEACHERS

Noble R. McEwen, head of the department of education at Salem, addressed the Classroom Teachers Association of Lenoir at a meeting Tuesday afternoon. He spoke on "Arithmetic in Elementary Grades," discussing this subject by request.

Mr. McEwen is making a special study of the effect of verbal cues in problem solving in arithmetic, the theme for his doctor of philosophy degree at Duke University.

LIONS HEAR SALEM PUPILS SING

Two students of Salem's music department, Louise Norris of Durham, and James Blair of Winston-Salem, sang at Wednesday's luncheon meeting of the Lions Club in the Robert E. Lee Hotel. Miss Norris is a contralto; Blair is a bass-baritone. They were accompanied by Miss Virginia Thompson of the music department staff.

Miss Norris sang, "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice," by Saint-Saens, and "The Camel's Hump," by Kipling and German. Blair sang the aria, "Now Your Days of Philandering Are Over," from Mozart's opera, "The Marriage of Figaro,"

about Cigarette Tobaccos

THERE ARE FOUR TYPES of tobaccos found in the more popular cigarettes, namely...Bright, Maryland, Burley and Turkish.

ALL THESE TOBACCOS except Turkish (which is bought direct from the planters in Turkey and Greece) and Maryland (which is bought through sealed bids under government supervision) are bought at public auction, just like any other auction where you might have bought in a table or a chair.

AT THE AUCTION SALE the tobacco is piled in baskets weighing from about 100 to 500 pounds and each purchaser buys all of his tobaccos by competitive bidding for the particular piles he wants.

THE CHESTERFIELD BUYERS buy the best of these mild ripe tobaccos for the Chesterfield blend. And it is Chesterfield's Combination... the right amounts of Burley and Bright... just enough Maryland... and just enough Turkish—that makes the big difference between Chesterfield and other cigarettes.

IT IS BECAUSE of this combination that Chesterfields are COOLER, have a BETTER TASTE and are DEFINITELY Milder. They are made of the world's best cigarette tobaccos. You can't buy a better cigarette.
