THEY'RE READY FOR USE —

Have you played any tennis since the courts were lined and the nets put up? Have you played any golf since the golf course was mowed? Miss "At" has gone to a great deal of trouble to see that the tennis courts were fixed and the golf course mowed. Since these warm spring days call us outside, let's make good use of this opportunity to enjoy ourselves. Let's show Miss "At" how much we appreciate her efforts, by using the tennis courts and golf course.

ON BORROWING

"Do you have a pair of scissors?"
"Yeah, they're in the closet."

Three weeks later — "Now, who walked out of here with my scissors?" After yelling at the top of our voice to any one who happens to be on the hall, and after nosing into several rooms, we finally locate a pair of scissors that bear some resemblance to ours. But then ours weren't bent, and they didn't have dried soup all over the blades. They were fairly respectable scissors, and we were particularly fond of them. We mumble a while and then decide that these will be better than none. We take them and walk out.

Salemites, we aren't preaching, but if we start swapping and returning and clearing out now, maybe we can begin to have a pretty good idea where some of the things we brought here in September are. After all, we will be here only six more weeks, and unless we do something now, we will have quite a bit of confusion locating lost and dropped articles before we leave.

By the way, I wonder whose ink this is that I'm using?

SHOW THE HIGH SCHOOL-ER'S YOUR SALEM SPIRIT

As we learned Monday night in house-meeting, this weekend the college is to entertain high school seniors who are prospective Salem students. Naturally our cordiality will be all-important at this time. The campus is doing its part by growing more lovely every day; so let's be as enthusiastic and make these girls want to know and love Salem as we do.

MORE ABOUT OUR SEAL

Attention, Salemites! The mystery surrounding the traditional seal has been solved! The article in last week's "Salemite" regarding the Salem seal caught the attention of Mrs. Rondthaler, and she sent in some additional information concerning the seal, the gist of which I will pass on to you.

Mrs. Rondthaler tells us that the Salem seal which is not the official seal of the college was drawn by Dorothy Doe, a member of the class of 1907, and that the design was made expressly as a decorative seal for the 1907 Sights and Insights.

Dorothy drew it as the class prescribed, "the Pilot Mountain at the top standing for strength, the Scroll for Knowledge, and the Wreath for Peace."

Throughout the years, the Pilot Mountain has dissolved into a row of books. Mrs. Rondthaler said that she has recently had some correspondence with a member of the class of 1907 about the seal, and although the class "deplores the loss of the mountain, still they admit that a row of books is very appropriate to Salem College."

Dorothy Doe, the designer of the seal, is now Mrs. Ryman of New York City, and is a native of Asheville. She was not only a Salem girl, but a teacher at Salem for several years.

We appreciate Mrs. Rondthaler's information about the seal, for this additional knowledge makes the seal even more interesting to us.

There seems still to be some mystery as to the meaning of the three Greek letters, Gamma, Kappa, and Delta; and if any of you know what they stand for, we would appreciate your letting us know about it.

COIN FRANÇAIS

LA CIGARETTE

Oui, ce monde est bien plat: quant à l'autre, sornettes.
Moi, je vais résigné sans espoir à mon sort,
Et pour tuer le temps, en attendant la mort,
Je fume au nez des dieux de fines cigarettes.

Allez, vivants, lutez, pauvres futurs squelettes.
Moi, le méandre bleu qui vers le ciel se tord
Me plonge en une extase infinie et m'endort
Comme un parfum mourant de mille cassolettes.

Et j'entre au paradis, fleuri de rêves clairs
Où l'on voit se mêler en valse fantastiques
Des éléphants en rut à des choeurs de moustiques.

Et puis quand je m'éveille en songeant à mes vers,
Je contemple, le coeur plein d'une douce joie,
Mon cher pouce rôti comme une cuisse d'oie.
—Jules LaForgue.
