ALONG MAGAZINE ROW . . .

Newcomers:

The American Scholar (quarterly) 'A medium for scholars and all persons who are interested in intellectual pursuits.' Articles cover the arts, sciences, political science and economics. Has a special department of news notes entitled 'In the realm of scholarship.'

Geographical Review (quarterly) Published by The American Geographical Society of New York. Contains general articles, maps, notes, comments, reviews, and correspondence.

Vital Speeches of The Day (semi-monthly) Contains text of important speeches by authorities on current national problems. Impartial and authentic.

Missing:

L'illustration, the French illustrated weekly since June. Sadly reminding us of the fate of France.

A Merger:

Current History and the Forum became one in July. The new title is 'Current History and Forum.'

Sigrid Undset, Nobel Prize Winner in Literature in 1928 and first speaker on Salem College lecture series, is well represented in our library by the following books:

- The Burning Bush
Gunnar's Daughter
Ida Elisabeth
Images in a Mirror
Kristen Lavransdatter (trilogy)
The Longest Year
The Master of Hestviken (tetralogy)
The Wild Orchid.

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH LITERATURE

(Herald Tribune via New Yorker). Katherine Brush requires for composition a dozen typewriters, each in a different pastel shade to suit the mood and humor of the moment.

When your students do not characterize like Dickens, soar like Shelley, or grow mighty like Marlowe, Mrs. D., what talents may be hidden behind a brown desk, white and yellow pencil.

WINSTON-SALEM'S SHOPPING CENTER, SEPTEMBER 20, 1940.

THE ANCHOR CO. HAVING FACE LIFTED

They tell us the way to 'get by' these days is to put on a bold front. Our store just this moment doesn't have much front at all, but behind the workmen and lumber, you'll find the same service and the same smiling faces as always. We'll soon have an entire new front to The Anchor Co., your shopping center.

OPEN? Yes, from 8:45 to 5:30 and 'til 6 o'clock on Saturday. You'll find us ready to serve you on all three floors, in every department.

We welcome Salemites. You'll find the Anchor Co. the place to do all your shopping. If it's fixing up your room — you will find many helpful items in our downstairs store. If it's curtains, drapes, linens or bedding you'll find these on our second floor, and if it's wearables, you'll find these on our main floor.

See Our Doll House Modelling By Live Girls ONLY 3 INCHES TALL They Talk — Walk — Dance 10:30 to 12 Noon — 2:30 to 4:30 P. M.

The above is a picture of our old building---all scaffolded up and the covered walkway for your safety during shopping hours.

The above is a picture of how The Anchor will look after the job is finished. A new modern store with all the very latest fashions and styles awaiting your early selections.
