SALEMITES OFF TO SWEETBRIAR

12 LEAVE FOR VIRGINIA

Friday morning, at exactly eighty-three, the Salem hockey team left for the Virginia Conference held at Sweetbriar this year. The team will stay in Sweetbriar Friday night and return to the Salem campus late Saturday evening. The players were in good condition, and had all hopes of returning to Salem victorious.

Those representing Salem were:

- L. W. Sara Bowen
- L. I. Lillian Lanning
- C. F. Teenie McGehee
- R. I. Sue Forrest
- R. W. Eleanor Hutchinson
- L. H. Eugenia Baynes
- C. H. Sally Emerson
- R. H. Betty Barbour
- L. F. Ann Ewing
- R. F. Leila Johnston
- G. Reece Thomas
- Substitute Louis Bralower.

GOLF LESSONS

Fore! Keep your head down and your body straight, don't move your left foot too much; swing evenly with the club! These and many more such apt phrases are the warnings that the "golf girls" hear at their lessons. Mr. Guy Paulsen, the Old Town Club pro, is well qualified to be the instructor, having done a fine piece of work here last spring. Quite a number have enrolled and every Tuesday at 2:00 and 3:00 you will see the golf-minded lassies of Salem headed for the course. It's lot's of fun and good for the figure!

BLACK EYES

One of our teachers claims that brown eyes are indications of a weak will. And I claim that a black one is an indication of a weak defense.

PREVIEW OF JOBS

the Italian building in the international group. Most of these objects are used in exterior decorating. In connection with this topic was shown St. Patrick's Cathedral which drew a gasp of admiration from all and tears from the New Yorkers present. For landscapers who like to live in the city there is now work — in the sky gardens which are being built on the tops of many tall buildings.

From exteriors Miss Hood went to interiors. On top of the Chase National Bank is the house of ideas — filled with gadgets of architects and designers. The house appears to be a suburban California home, its features are an outdoor living room which may be closed by a sliding glass wall, a powder room which may pressing a button be converted to a dark room, a bookcase which turns into a bridge table with chairs.

The Music Hall employs 62 hundred people. It is a movie theater and a glorified vaudeville plus a 90 piece symphony orchestra. Jobs exist for many in the making of each set in miniature before it is ever executed on a large scale. The ushers there are all boys working their way through colleges in the city. The boys in the Glee Club must not only be able to sing well but also to speak 5 foreign languages. There are two groups of dancers, the ballet, in which each girl has ambitions for herself, to become ballerina and the tapdancers, better known as the Rockettes, who must have only ambition for the team. There are 46 tapdancers but only 36 dance at a time.

Miss Hood showed scenes from the Rainbow room which she told the audience was designed with satin walls to show off beautiful women and their beautiful clothes.

Salem was indeed fortunate to have Miss Hood present, because here as well as in all other schools, there are many girls who are beginning to wonder about the future after next June.

THE WAY TO MORE SMOKING PLEASURE

Today, more than ever, people are taking to Chesterfield because Chesterfield concentrates on the important things in smoking. You smoke Chesterfields and find them cool and pleasant. You light one after another, and they really taste better. You buy pack after pack, and find them definitely milder.

For complete smoking satisfaction
