

MAY DAY ACTIVITIES

Margaret Vardell and Marian Johnson have worked long and hard on arranging old compositions to suit Salem's Brittary Festival.

Teenie McGeehee, chairman of May Day,, has been busy for weeks with plans for the pageant and her job has been no small one. She is shown here consulting with Chubby Hayes, Publicity Chairman.

Dudie Jones, who will take the place of Thorn Clark in the May Court. We are sorry Thorn can't be here but are delighted that someone as beautiful as Dudie can take her place.

Katharine King just practicing another one of her talents. Here she is "doing" the portrait of her maid-of-honor, Margaret Patterson.

The Prince of Poetic Vagabonds as played by Elizabeth Trotman, kneels to our beauteous Queen of the May, Katharine King.
