HOCKEY MEET HELD AT SALEM

Every year the girls' hockey teams from North Carolina colleges and universities hold a hockey meet. This year the tournament will be held at Salem. The Athletic Association is sponsoring a Hockey Play Day on Oct. 25th.

Invitations to attend this meet have been issued to the following schools: University of North Carolina, at Chapel Hill; Guilford College; St. Mary's College; Peace College; Duke University; High Point College; Meredith College; W. C. U. N. C. By the last of this week the Athletic Association will receive replies from these colleges telling whether or not they'll be here on the 25th.

The program for the day is as follows:

- 10:00-10:45—Registration
- 11:00-12:30—Games
- 1:00- 2:00—Lunch
- 2:30- 4:30—Games
- 4:30- 5:00—Meeting of Judging Committee
- 5:00- 5:45—Tea and Announcement of Awards

The awards will be given to individual players as well as to teams. The judging committee will be made up of representative judges from the various schools.

Salem is unusually fortunate in having the opportunity to witness the 1941 meets according to Eleanor Hutchinson, president of the Athletic Association. "The cooperation of all students in making the day a success will be appreciated." Above all Salem must be represented by a group which shows experienced teamwork as well as the skill of individual players. Hockey practice will be held every afternoon from 4:00 to 6:00."

TENNIS TOURNAMENT AT SEMI-FINALS

Any Salemites wandering down by the tennis courts this week or last, have heard the sound of a ball hitting a racket with a real "zing." Why? The tennis tournament has been in full swing with the upperclassmen trying to win in doubles, and the Freshmen doing their best in a singles tournament.

For the past two weeks it was any Salemite's chance to be a champion in tennis. Now, however, the field has narrowed down and the semi-finals are to be played sometime next week.

In the Freshman class, Carolyn Goodson will battle against the winner in a game between Joyce Wooten and Jay Flannigan.

Eddie Baughm and Ann Long will compete against the winners of the game between Inez Parrish and Nancy McClung versus Phillis Hill and Mary Lib Rand.

Names of the winners in each tournament, will be pasted on the bulletin board outside the day students building.

The way to love anything is to realize that it might be lost.
