HOCKEY MEET HELD AT SALEM

Permit me, in my humble way, to make a humble report of a terribly humble team. As you should know, the Carolina Hockey Conference was held here last Saturday, and since we were hostesses, we felt we ought to scrape a team together. This we did with difficulty.

With somewhat of an inferiority complex, our eleven straggled onto the field to play Duke. We didn't do so badly as had been expected, the game ending in a 1-1 tie.

After lunch (which was excellent) we went with renewed vigor to the hockey field, there to meet a sad 3-0 defeat at the hands of Guilford's second team. And our final game was a scoreless tie with W. C. U. N. C.

The team did well — as well as it could. There was little co-operation from the student body as far as practice was concerned. The Salem genius, however, will come to the fore despite all hindrances, and three of our players made the all-state team: Eugenia Baynes, Betty Barbour, and Sara Bowen.

Thanks to those who co-operated and forgiveness to those who had other plans. Maybe you'll be able to do something to deserve this forgiveness as the season progresses.

By the time you say you're his
Shivering and sighing
And he vows his vow for you
Is infinite, undying

One of you is lying.
