LONG TELLS OF BADMINTON TOURNAMENT

Ann Long, badminton manager of the Salem Athletic Association made available Wednesday cards on which to sign up for the badminton doubles tournament which she hopes will be played off before Christmas.

The A. A. Council planned the tournament to take the place of the traditional hockey tournament since no interest has been taken by students in the more strenuous hockey practice.

The singles tournament will be held after Christmas. In this way the inexperienced players will have a chance to practice before playing alone.

University of North Carolina's original 1795 faculty of two members waited almost a month until the first student, Hinton James, walked 200 miles to enroll—A.C.P.

Students around the world depend on the United States. W.S.S.F. is the only organization devoted to student relief.

Persons named Leavenworth are eligible to benefit under a $12,000 scholarship fund at Hamilton College.—A.C.P.

GREEN'S BOOKS

Alice keep up the tattered remnants of their aristocracy on a ruined plantation in North Carolina. There is only one man in the community suitable to marry Alice and he is too shy and too proud to press his suit. When young Danny Lawton come along, an incredible vagrant figure with a guitar over his shoulder, he fills the aching lack in Alice's life. Rumor deals harshly with their relations and the Klan gets on their trail, with tragic results.

MORAVIANS

Many important figures in Moravian History are presented. Among the most important ones are John Hus, Comenius Zinzendorf, Leonard Dober, David Nitchmann, and others. The pageant ends with Christ's challenge to our generation.

The Rev. Clayton Persons is the General chairman of the pageant committees and James Shore is the director. Music is presented throughout the play.
