FIRST ANNUAL HORSE SHOW TO BE HELD AS SALEM

For the first time in the history of Salem College, the Annual Horse show will be held on our campus, Saturday May 22, at 4:00 p. m. The track will be on the athletic field and the observers will spectate from the banks of the hills.

The classes in the show will consist of beginners and advanced riders from the college and the Academy. In addition to the contests for horsemanship, a relay race will be held which is expected to be very interesting, since this will be the first time the girls have done relay riding. Ribbons will be awarded to both the Academy students and the College students. In addition to the ribbons, Mr. Monte Cohen, of Cohen's Ready-to-Wear Shop, is presenting a silver cup to be awarded to the Salem College student who qualifies in improvement, ability, and interest. This cup will not be awarded at the horseshow, but in chapel at a later date. In order to be considered for the cup, the student must have one semester's riding in addition to riding in the horseshow.

Mrs. W. M. Storey will preside as judge. It is felt that Mrs. Storey is eminently qualified for this difficult task since she is well known as a breeder of show horses and has won several cups with the horses bred at her Old Mill Farm.

Despite weather and war conditions, Mrs. Wallace Dunham has done a great deal in instructing both the Academy and College students in riding this year, and it is hoped that all students and their friends will attend this show to prove that her effort has been worthwhile. The public is invited and there will be no admission.

The following girls are eligible to enter the horseshow from Salem College:

- Doris Smith
- Mary Miller
- Ann Brown
- Frances Rives
- Kathleen Phillips
- Edith Shapiro
- Peggy Bollin
- Rosalind Clark
- Vawter Steele

SOFTBALL

The first softball game of the season was a tie of 5-5 by the juniors and sophomores.

The freshmen forfeited the next game from the seniors when only one of the "old ladies" showed up, but bouquets to those four who did drag themselves out.

On last Friday the freshmen played a hard-fought but good-natured game with the sophomores. The sophomores were hot after the freshmen scalps for they had been defeated by them in hockey and basketball. By hard hitting, good pitching, and excellent fielding the sophs won 14 to 9 and regained some of their self-respect. Outstanding players for the sophomores were second baseman "Stu" Snider, pitcher Edith Stovall, first-baseman Rachel Pinkston, and short stop Joyce Wooten. Betsy Casteen pitched a nice game for the freshmen and Martha Humbert and Aehsah Shore were the heavy hitters for that team.

Yesterday Mary Lewis, pitcher, helped the juniors defeat the seniors 21-14 by making a home-run. Ginor Foster is captain of the juniors; Coco McKenzie, of the seniors.

LAST SING IS SUNDAY NIGHT

Remember how much fun that community sing was in chapel yesterday? Well here comes another grand opportunity to hear and sing those favorite numbers and some new ones as well. Sunday evening in Memorial Hall at eight-thirty the Music School will present a final program in the series of thirteen broadcasts. The program will begin at eight-thirty and the regular broadcast will be from nine to nine-thirty. This resume program will include participation by community groups as well as the music school. A large community chorus will sing several well-loved numbers from oratorios and will be directed by guest conductors. Members of the conducting class and the choral ensemble will lead the ensemble in presenting various songs both during the broadcast and before it.

Songs of the United Nations to be featured will be, first of all "The Star Spangled Banner," conducted by Aline Shamel. Elizabeth Johnston will lead the ensemble in "Rule Britannia"; Peggy Eaton will conduct the Chinese Marching Songs, "Arise, ye who refuse to be bond slaves." Shostakovitch, contemporary Russian composer, has composed a "Hymn of the United Nations" which will be conducted by Margaret Leinbach. A group of Stephen Foster songs, "Swanee River," "Beautiful Dreamer," and "Some Folks" will feature conductors Jane Garrou, Marie Fitzgerald Jones, and Annie Hyman Bunn respectively. Of particular interest is the two piano accompaniment for each of the numbers. Two teams, Winstead-C. Swinson, and L. Taylor-Love, will give excellent support from the keyboards.

Mr. Bair, with the help of Miss Porter, arranged the entire program and the Choral Ensemble will assist throughout. The ensemble will also sing the beautiful "Prayer Without Words" by Gustav Holst, in which Marian Gary will sing the soprano solo. This super-colossal program needs the enthusiastic support of each one of you in order to be a real success, and we are depending upon your presence Sunday evening at eight-thirty.
