

MUSIC NOTES

Everyone has been talking about the picture "Phantom of the Opera," and I don't blame them! The music was simply marvelous. Did you recognize the themes of Tschai-kowsky's Fourth Symphony and Chopin's Nocturne? We were really thrilled over the musical performances—it made us feel as if we had really been to the Opera. Suzanne Foster is a real "find" with a beautiful voice as well as lovely features. How did you like the high "f" (or whichever tone it was)?

From the remarks, it seems that everyone enjoyed Jeanette McDonald's concert. Those who were there commented upon her striking beauty. The movies just do not do her justice.

Again let me remind you of the Civic Music Concert Monday night—presenting Mr. Claudio Arrau, pianist.

PRIMA DONNA

Through," "Maytime," "The Waltz" from "Romeo and Juliet," "Italian Street Song," and "Indian Love Call." Perhaps the encore that caused the most enthusiasm was "The Donkey Serenade." Explaining that she had not brought a flute, Miss MacDonald turned to the group of service men on the stage and asked if they would assist her by whistling the part of the flute. One soldier obliged and was called to the front, where he stood beside Miss MacDonald and supplied the whistling accompaniment while she sang. This brought down the house.

Collins Smith, Miss MacDonald's accompanist, played two numbers, and as encores rendered "Clair de Lune" by Debussy and "The Chinese Dance" from "The Nutcracker Suite."

"GET A HORSE" IS TAKEN LITERALLY

For its first project, the Riding Club is sponsoring something unusual.

Saturday, November 13, a group of riders will leave for an overnight trip to Pilot Mountain. The night will be spent in a farmhouse. Then, up at 4.00 a. m. for a ride up to the top of Pilot to see the sunrise. After that, the girls will come back down to the house for breakfast. Then, home again.

At present, it seems as if it will be necessary to have another week-end ride on November 20. You don't have to be a regular rider to go, but be sure you have had enough experience.

If you are interested, please see Nellie Seewald about signing up before Tuesday.

NOTICE PIERRETTES

6:45 Monday night the Pierrettes are having the first reading of "Ladies in Retirement," the first main production of the year. If you are interested—meet in the old Chapel.

Any of you kind souls who are artists at heart can bring forth your talents in the Pierrette room this week-end—please, children appear!!

HORSE LOVERS WILL GET HEADS TOGETHER

The riding club which has been hinted at for some time will be born Tuesday night at 7:00 p. m. in the recreation room of Bitting. It's up to you to name the new filly.

Membership in this new club is open to all people who are interested in horses in any way whether you are taking an active interest at the present time or not. Both of the faculty members and student body are invited.

Well-qualified speakers will be asked to talk on the training and types of horses as well as any other phase of "horse talk" in which you are interested.

Don't forget! You don't have to take riding here at school in order to become a member. Your interest is your qualification.

MAY COMMITTEE

Junior who will be just perfect in the Tea Room.

With Staney as Chairman and all of these girls to help her May Day is bound to be the best one yet. At least that is what we predict! Also Mrs. Williams, the Dramatics Club director, has graciously consented to help all she can.

This is all about May Day that can be let out now, but remember election for the queen and court isn't too far off. Begin thinking It's up to us to pick out a court that will do Stoney's pageant proud.
