Stee Gee Holds Installation In Assembly

In a simple and impressive ceremony, the new Stee Gee members for the coming year were installed Thursday morning during the assembly period in Memorial Hall. Nell Denning, out-going president of Stee Gee, opened the program with a brief resume of the organization's activities during the past year. After giving Peggy Witherington, the newly-elected president, the oath of office, she presented her with the traditional purple robe of the presidency. This year's members, all wearing white, were seated on the stage in a semi-circle. As each new member went up on the stage to take the oath of office, an old member walked off, leaving a chair for her successor.

The new Stee Gee officers that were sworn in are as follows: Peggy Witherington, President; Doris Little and Sara Hege, Vice-presidents; Mary Ann Linn, Secretary; and Sarah Haltiwanger, Treasurer. Also sworn in were new members of the Executive committee, the Judicial committee, and the Legislative. Following the installation, the new president gave a short talk concerning her goals for the year, after which the student body sang the "Salem Alma Mater."

"Scorpions" Are Revealed

Due to the delayed publication of the "Sights and Insights," Miss Ivy Hixson, Academic Dean of Salem, announced the names of eleven members of the "Order of the Scorpion" in assembly Thursday morning in Memorial Hall.

The "Scorpion" is a secret organization whose members are chosen, not for their scholastic ability, but for their leadership and character. The purpose of the "Scorpion" is "service for Salem" and its members are girls who have proven their willingness and ability to uphold and respect the traditions of Salem College.

The members of the "Order of the Scorpion" were announced as follows:

Mary Lucy Baynes, Molly Bosenman, Mary Ellen Byrd, Nell Denning, Jane Frazier, Elizabeth Gudger, Frances Jones, Josephine Mc-Lauchlin, Mary Alice Neilson, Lucile Newman, and Hazel Watts.

of the Y, and hopes to do this by having stronger Y group formation. The Athletic Association hopes to stimulate more interest in athletics all year round.

The War Activities Council is planning a bigger and more diversified program of activities as Salem's part in the war effort.

Sights and Insights, Inc. hopes to improve the annual publication each year.

Other clubs presented their plans and told their aims. Mr. Weinland called the Presidents' Forum "a progressive move," and it is hoped that with the cooperation of all leaders of organizations on the campus, and through the careful planning of the Presidents' Forum, next year a well-arranged and diversified program of activities will be presented to the student body.

MARY COONS' RECITAL

organizations. She has sung with the Choral Ensemble. She has worked on the Salem staff. She has been an I. R. S. Council member and president of the German Club. As vice-president of this year's senior class and acting president of the Day Students, she has served on the judicial board, the legislative committee, the executive committee, and the nominating committee of Student Government.

Six girls will act as ushers at her recital. They are: Hazel Newman Slawter, Norma Rhoades, Jane Frazier, Mamie Herring, Betty Withers, and Josephine Mc-Lauchlin.

After graduating, Mary plans to continue her study in piano. She hopes to go to Eastman School of Music next year or the following year.

We gratefully appreciate your patronage during the past year and hope to serve you in the future—
