Girls Attend "Y" Convention

by Emma Mitchell and Frances Carr

From beginning to end our trip was a wonderful experience! Friday in Washington was full of new sights. We met eleven other student delegates there and made a tour of the Capitol, Congress, Supreme Court, Library of Congress, and the city itself. We also attended a hearing of the House Money and Banking Committee with testimonies by Henry J. Kaiser. We arrived in Atlantic City that night after a freezing lay-over in Philadelphia. Our first meeting Saturday morning was a Student Assembly held at the Breakers Hotel—a brisk trudge of ten blocks down the famous Boardwalk from our hotel. There were approximately 200 students at the Convention, representing college YWCA's in every state and Hawaii. At the three Student Assemblies which we attended there were open forums in which we exchanged ideas and sought aid for our local YWCA set-up.

The Convention proper was held in Convention Hall—the largest auditorium in the world—into which poured some 4,000 delegates representing YWCA's not only in the United States, but from 23 foreign countries as well. Our meetings were held there daily, starting with a worship service at 9:15 in the morning and continuing until 9:30 at night—with time out only for meals. Problems of world interest were discussed by prominent educators, scientists, and foreign representatives including the first woman out of Korea in six years. Religious emphasis was stressed by leading theologians, and the business of the National and World YWCA discussed. The convention theme, "One World Under God," was the over-tone for all the speakers. We learned how broad the National YWCA scope really is; we met people from all over the world with whom we exchanged ideas; and we prayed with people of all races and walks of life.

"They Say That Up At Salem...."

At the basketball games, the ole grey mare may not be what she used to be, but when it comes to social and intellectual life, you can sing a different tune! Oh, these subtle seniors and the drama of their life... Flash! Luke's back—the last of the sickly seniors has recovered! And no sooner does she return than Greta plans to go to Hickory this weekend... Meredith is to be among those present at Gaither's this weekend, and Lois is off to Philadelphia to see Payne graduate into the medics... Doris will be in Ailene Seville's wedding in Statesville Saturday... Effie Ruth's brother is home from the Navy and she's Goldsboro-bound for the weekend... Polly got another surprise last weekend when Ed showed up all-of-a-sudden-like... Vidette just can't keep her head out of the clouds—as if Guy wasn't enough, she has to fly planes at the airport too... And what do ya know—Rosie's learning to fly, too... Lou is off to Fayetteville this weekend to bid Tom goodbye... and Harry is still calling her from New Mexico... —yes, the seniors are really up on the social life!

"Some Talk of Alice Clewell"

"California—calling Miss Bernice Bunn"... Pell is back in the states... Barbara Folger is off to Mt. Airy to see Marty—poor "Bo"... Imagine four dates in a row!!! And we do mean you, Mary Frances... Statesville was well represented on the campus Tuesday night—Gaither, Say-so, Martha Brannock, and Katherine Ives were the lucky ones... Anne, how was "Strick's" trip to Chapel Hill? Quick trip, huh?... Ab is coming to see Barrett again this weekend... Norman Stockton is one of our regular visitors now. The girls on second enjoyed the ride Wednesday afternoon... Roberta and Penn seems to be getting along fine now—two week-ends and no fuss... Van is really making the rounds at Salem—Martha, Saturday; Hodge, Tuesday; and Frances, Thursday—our time will come, girls... Babe, Ticks, and Pierce plan to add a little life to Albemarle this weekend... Boney's five page typewritten letter from Kyle caused quite a bit of excitement... Lucy Scott knows a certain Fred who will provide four dates per night. Sign up now, girls... News reached us that an ex-Salemite, namely Betty Dunning, has just been married—and not to Les... Trixie and Aileen had a hard time finding Dick, but it was worth it...

"The Girls from Lehman Hall"

Last week-end, McGee went home, as did Mussy to see her Baby Duck. Hallie and Peggy Page are planning a trip to New York during spring holidays.

Catherine Moore has big hometown plans for this week-end.

Hilda is acting the cupid-go-between in the Sally Hamilton-Bob Roseman affair.

Wilton—tall, lanky, bashful, and good-looking—was up last week-end to see Lib Lee.

Peggy Page's brother Hollingsworth, and four other Harvard men stopped to see Lehman Thursday.

Sam Gattis, Jean's brother, is now the sweetheart of Lehman.

"Sassiety"

It is not so bad to break a foot if you get the pretty flowers Jane McElroy got. However missing a week-end at Carolina isn't so easy to grin and bear. Nothing kept Barbara from playing around Carolina with Fritz even if she did have to 'fess up to Jim when he called both nights she was gone and wanted full explanation of her running out on him.

Teau seemed to be going in all directions at once last week-end with dating Sam Saturday night and Vincent Sunday. Must be tres gai to have different dates every day.

Bee did herself up proud and took in the Bowman Gray dance with Jimmy who will be Jim Clark, M. D. in just two weeks.
