

Students Elect Leaders

Library Announces Contest

General Information

Salem College Library will again hold a student library contest to encourage and stimulate student interest in building up personal libraries during their undergraduate years. The names of those who wish to enter the contest should be given to one of the librarians by April 10. Further information and helpful suggestion will appear in the Salemite and on the campus bulletin boards. WATCH FOR THEM.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

Juniors and Seniors — Personal Library Contest

1. Number of books to be entered: maximum—30.
2. All books must be the property of the student entering the contest, and so marked.
3. Textbooks designed primarily for classroom use may not be included.

The prizes offered in this contest are:

- (1) For the best general collection of a cultural and practical nature, $25.00 for purchase of books.
- (2) For the second best collection, which may be a special collection, $15.00 for purchase of books.

Prizes will be awarded around May, 15, and the winning libraries will be put on exhibition in the library.

(Prizes will not be given unless as 10 students enter)

Freshmen and Sophomores—Personal Library Booklist Contest

1. A typewritten list of not more than 30 books, cultural and practical, which the student desires to have in her own personal library. Give author, title, publisher, price, with brief notes stating reason for the student's choice of each title. The prizes offered in this contest are: (1) For the best general list, $10.00 for purchase of books from the list. (2) For the second best list, which may be a list for a special group of books, $5.00 for purchase of books from the list.

Prizes will be awarded around May 15. Lists must be in the hands of the Librarian by April 10. (Prizes will not be given unless as many as 10 students enter)

ASK IN THE LIBRARY FOR APPLICATION BLANKS or FOR FURTHER INFORMATION

Dure Speaks To Staff

Mr. L. S. Dure, news editor of the Journal-Sentinel, spoke informally to the Salemite staff last Tuesday night. He discussed make-up in general, as well as criticizing the make-up of several issues of the Salemite.

Mr. Dure recently came to Winston-Salem from Richmond, Virginia, where he was on the staff of the Times Dispatch.

CONSTANCE SCOGGIN

SALLY BOSWELL

LUCY SCOTT

BERNICE BUNN

HENRIETTA WALTON

JANIE MULHOLLEM

Scoggin Heads Students Body

Connie Scoggin was elected in a Student Body meeting on Tuesday, March 19, as President of the Salem Student Government for 1946-1947. Connie, a rising senior, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Scoggin of Reidsville, N. C. As a Freshman Connie was on the Chapel Committee; last year she was on the Salemite staff and a Sophomore cheer leader; this year she has served as President of the French Club, Secretary of the War Activities Council, Assistant Editor of "Sights and Insights" and Secretary of the Junior Class. Among names on the dean's list you will find Constance Scoggin. Other nominations for this honor were Ann Folger of South Orange, N. J. and Rebecca Clapp from Siler City, N. C.

VICE-PRESIDENTS

Sally Boswell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Boswell of Roanoke, Va. was elected as on-campus Vice-President to work with Connie for the Student Government. Sally will edit the 1946 handbook, and she will be head of the Chapel Committee in cooperation with the off-campus Vice-President. Among Sally's extra-curricular activities are: Salemite staff her Sophomore year, and President of the War Activities Council, Red Cross Supervisor, Legislative board, Chapel Committee, and a Marshal her Junior year.

Sara Coe Hunsucker of High Point was the other candidate for Vice-President.

Lucy Scott was elected off-campus vice-president of the student body in the election on Tuesday. Lucy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Littleton Scott of Winston-Salem. She is an outstanding member of this year's Junior Class.

Lucy is vice-president of the Junior Class, a member of Alpha Iota Pi, El Club Espanol, and the Le Cercle Francais.

The other nominee for vice-president was Ann Barber.

SECRETARY

Peggy Davis, sophomore, was elected Secretary of Student Government. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Davis of Raleigh. Peggy is photographic editor of Sights and Insights, Salemite copy editor, and was class president in her freshman year. Mary Bryant and Barbara Folger were the other nominees for secretary.

As Secretary of Student Government for next year, Peggy says, "My aim is to be up to the minute (s)!"

TREASURER

Peggy Blum was elected treasurer of the student body in the election on Tuesday. Peggy defeated Patsy Law and Frances Sowers. She is a popular member of this year's sophomore class and is a member of the German Club.

SIGHTS AND INSIGHTS

Bernice Bunn was elected to serve as editor of the 1946-47 Sights and Insights in an election held by the junior class Wednesday afternoon. Bernice is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bunn of Tarboro. She has been literary editor of the annual this past year and has worked with the Salemite staff. Mary Hunter Hackney was the (Continued on Page Five)

Four Election Days Remain

Only four more days of elections remain! The staff of the Salemite will meet Monday at 1:30 to elect the editor. The presidents of Y. W. C. A. and I. R. S. will be elected in assembly on Tuesday. The three classes meet on Wednesday to elect their presidents and the entire student body will vote for the Chief Marshal on Thursday in assembly. This will complete the election of the presidents of the major campus organization. This new system, set up on a trial basis, has greatly increased the students' interest.

Westminster Group Elects Swasey Head

Joanne Swasey was elected President of the Salem chapter of the Westminster Fellowship at a call meeting of the organization last Friday night in the old Chapel. Joanne has served on the Program Committee for this year. Other officers elected for the coming year are: vice-president, Virginia Smith; secretary, Preston Kabrich; corresponding secretary, Virginia Coburn; and treasurer, Nancy Carlton. Virginia Smith was this year's treasurer and Nancy had been on the social committee.

Friday night, March 29, will be the time of installation for these officers. At this time a banquet will be held at the First Presbyterian Church for all members of the Westminster Fellowship. Guest speaker for the occasion will be Dr. George Mauze, local pastor. It is hoped that a large number of the members will sign up on the papers placed in each dormitory for this purpose. The dead-line for signing up is Wednesday, March 27.

Dramatic Club To Present One-Act Plays March 30

Three one-act plays, all comedies, will be presented by the Freshmen Players and Pierrettes on Saturday, March 30, at 8 p. m. in the Old Chapel.

Judges, to be selected later, will choose the better of the two freshmen plays and will select the two best actresses in straight and will select the two best actresses in straight and character roles.

"The Happy Journey," by Thornton Wilder, has a cast of six: Jane Pointer as "Ma Kirby;" Martha Brannock as "Arthur;" Elnora Lambeth as "Caroline;" Nancy Wray as "Pa (Elmer) Kirby;" and Annie Lou Myatt as "Beulah."

Marion Gaither is stage manager. "Joint Owners in Spain," written by Alice Brown, has a cast of four including Nancy O'Grady as Mrs. Mitchell; Catherine Moore as "Mrs. Fullerton;" Eleanor Davidson as "Mrs. Blair" and Peirano Aiken as "Miss Dyer." The scene takes place in an old ladies' home.

On the same program the Pierrettes will present "The Feast of the Holy Innocents" by Samuel M. Ilseley. The cast includes Helen Slye as "Cornelia Milk;" Jane Mulhollem as "Electa Milk;" Anne Folger as "Mrs. Oberly;" Bernice Bunn as "Jennie" and Ann Carothers as "Mrs. Omar."

This play is to be entered in the State contest on April 4, after its trial performance at Salem on March 30.

Dr. Craig Will Speak In Library

Dr. Hardin Craig, of the English department of the University of North Carolina, will speak at the annual Friends of the Library meeting to be held at 8 p. m. Thursday, March 28, in the Salem College Library.

Dr. Craig's topic will be "Shakespeare—Citizen of the World." He is a noted Shakespearian scholar.

The family of Miss Mary Duncan McAnally will make a presentation to the library of a recordak microfilm reader which will be on exhibit at the meeting. Mrs. Gordon Spangh will present the Mary Duncan McAnally Collection to the library on behalf of the Order of the Scorpion. Mrs. Spangh was a classmate of Miss McAnally's and both were charter members of the Scorpions.

The meeting is open to the student body and faculty.

This issue of the Salemite was edited by Becky Clapp. This is the third of the Junior issues.