

A. A. Announces Honor Group, Award Winners, Softball Varsity

The Athletic Association's Banquet was held Wednesday night at 6 o'clock in the Corrin Refectory. This banquet is the first to be given by the A. A. at the end of the year. The purpose was to announce awards for this past year. Polly Starbuck 1945-46 president presided.

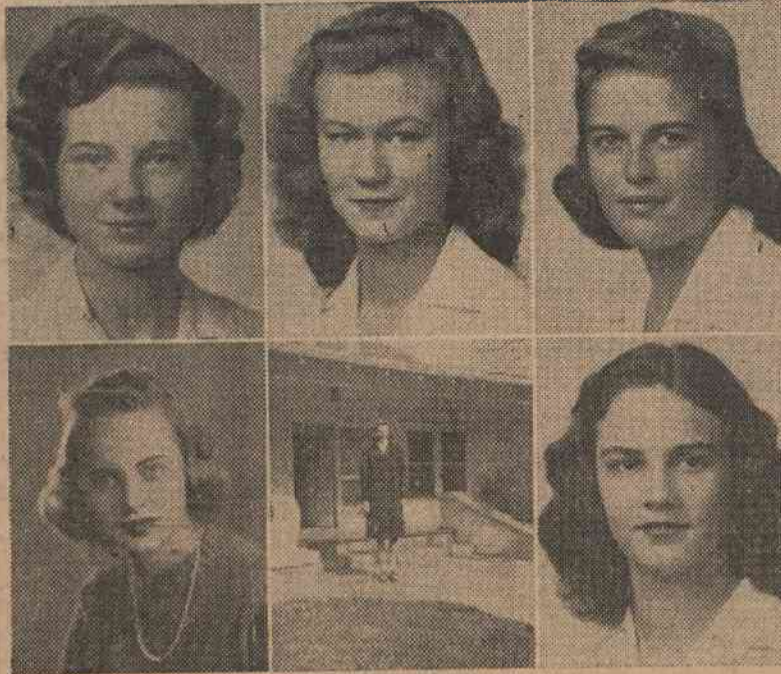

The following awards were announced. The Honor Group includes Eaton Seville, Virtie Stroup, Doris Little, Peggy Witherington, Ann Dysart and Nell Jane Griffin. This award is the highest honor that the A. A. can bestow. Not more than six girls from the entire student body are selected for this honor. They are chosen for their all-around ability in athletics, for their leadership, interest and participation, sportsmanship, and skill in all sports throughout the year.

Lois Wooten received a white blanket. It is the custom of the A. A. to give the senior with the greatest number of points this gift. Lois has seventy-eight points.

To the freshman class went the cup, which is given to the class with the most number of points in athletics. This is also a new award. The points are given to each class for having girls chosen for the various varsities and sub-varsities, for having the most number of spectators at the group games, and for girls winning first, second, and third place in individual sports.

Blazers given to those who had forty points or more went to Doris Little, Betsy Casteen, Isabel Leeper, Virtie Stroup, Ticksa Senter, Agnes Quinorly, Henrietta Walton, Martha Lou Heitman and Eva Martin Bullock.

Polly Starbuck, Mary Bryant, Anne Dysart, and Isabel Leeper received stars for thirty points, Eaton Seville, Rosalind Clark, Ruby Moye, Jane Greenwald, Mary Bryant, Polly stately "Grand Jeu" by DuMage. This was followed by the quiet "Prelude" by Purcell. The difficult Prelude and Fugue in G major by Bach displayed to advantage Miss Withers' clear-cut technique. The involved structural plan of the Fugue was well depicted.

In the Chorale in A minor by Franck, Miss Withers ably brought out the intricate melodic patterns and disclosed discriminating taste both in dramatic scope and in her use of expressive rubato.

The Toccata on "O Filii et Filiae" by Farnam was a brilliant number with sparkling arpeggios over a melody in the pedals. In marked contrast came the quiet Invocation, No. 2 by Dallier with its effective registration. The Finale from the First Symphony by Vierne provided a most satisfying climax to this last group. Miss Withers gave a brilliant reading of this difficult Finale and presented with ease its technical demands both of pedal and finger dexterity.

The ushers were Martha Moore Hayes, Edna Blake Stafford, Margaret Baity Newman and Frances Linwood Cartner.
