Three Classes Elect Presidents

Arts Forum Will Include Salem Work

Salem students will be represented at the fourth annual Arts Forum to be held in Greensboro on March 20, 21, and 22. The forum concerns college students' work in music, writing, art, the theater, and the dance; it is sponsored by the Woman's College.

A short story, Quarter Past Four, by Rosamond Putzel, is included in those to be discussed on the fiction forum. Carolyn Furr will play her composition "Dance" for the piano. Rebecca Clapp's song "Lost" will be sung by the composer, with Sarah Haltiwanger as accompanist. The Modern Dance Club will present a choreography called "Lead 'em Out" composed by the group; the music for this was arranged by Margaret Vardell.

The Arts Forum was originally planned to include only those colleges in the vicinity of North Carolina. It has been expanded to take work from representative American Schools.

"Y" Sponsors Stunt Night

Stunt Night takes place tonight at seven thirty in the Old Chapel. Each class will present a skit. One prize, a cash prize of five dollars, will be given to the class presenting the best skit, the skits being judged by Mrs. James K. Paul of Winston-Salem; a faculty member Miss Elizabeth Hedgecock; and a member of the administration, Mr. Peter Mann.

Admission to the skits is fifteen cents, and chances for a cake to be raffled off between the skits will be sold at the door. The proceeds from the sale of tickets and chances will go to the W. S. S. F., in hopes of reaching the close-by $1,000 mark—a mark which will top Salem's W. S. S. F. budget.

Lerch To Lead Civic Orchestra

Mr. James Lerch, head of the violin department, will conduct the concert of the Winston-Salem Orchestra at 8:30 p. m., March 19 in Memorial Hall.

The program will consist of: "Piano Concerto in D Minor" by Mozart, "Symphony No. 1 in C Major" by Beethoven, "Overture to Egmont" by Beethoven and "Intermezzo" from "Cavalleria Rusticana" by Mascagni.

This will be the first performance of the Civic Orchestra, and Mr. Lerch's first appearance here in this capacity. The organization of the orchestra was partly the result of Mr. Lerch's appointment through a grant-in-aid which was given Salem by the Juilliard School of Music in New York, with the understanding that the community would benefit from his presence here.

Tickets will be sold by the Salem College Chorale Ensemble and any member of the orchestra for sixty cents.

60 Chemists Will Meet Here Soon

The Piedmont Section of the American Chemical Society will meet here at Salem College on Thursday, March 20th. Approximately sixty leading chemists from this territory will be present for dinner Thursday night and for a meeting to be held afterwards in the old chapel. Dr. H. Mark of the Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute will be the speaker of the evening session and will discuss "Mechanisms of Polymerization Reactions".

The American Chemical Society is one of the most active and highly organized professional groups in our country. They are responsible for the publication of the technical magazines in this field and have encouraged and united chemists all over the world.

Several of the advanced chemistry students of the Salem Science Department will attend the meeting.

MARGARET RAYNAL

Dean Vardell Attends Meet

Charles G. Vardell, Jr., Dean of School of Music, Salem College represented the school at the 22nd annual meeting of the National Association of Schools of Music held recently at the Hotel Jefferson, St. Louis, Missouri. The Association is the only national accrediting body for educational institutions in the field of music in the United States. Its membership consists of more than one hundred and sixty of the foremost colleges, universities, and conservatories of music throughout the nation, including a select list of preparatory schools and junior colleges.

BETSY BONEY

Raynal, Boney Are Elected To Head Annual, May Day

Margaret Raynal was elected editor of the Sights and Insights for next year by members of the rising senior class. Margaret has served as cartoonist for the Salemite this year; she has also been art editor of the annual and a member of the May Day committee. In previous years she has served on the Y. W. C. A. cabinet and the legislative board and has been a member of the French Club. Catherine Gregory was the other candidate for Chairman of the May Day Committee.

The results of the election of class presidents was announced today. Anne Dungan is president of the rising senior class; Nell Penn Watt will lead next year's junior class; and Beverly Johnson is the sophomore president.

Senior Class President

Anne Dungan has been active in various campus organizations in the past three years. She was a representative to the Legislative Board of Student Government her freshman and sophomore years and was secretary of the Legislative Board her sophomore year. She has been a member of the Home Economics Club all three years and was vice-president this year. She has been a member of the Lablings, the Spanish Club and the Modern Dance Club, and served on the editorial staff of the Salemite for the past two years. Peggy Gray was the other candidate for the office.

Junior Class President

Nell Penn Watt won out over Louise Dodson for junior class president. Nell Penn has been active in sports, being a member of the class hockey and softball teams her freshman and sophomore years. She made freshman sub-varsity in softball and is on the sophomore hockey varsity. She has worked on the business staff of the Salemite for two years and is costume chairman of the May Day Committee. Active, too, in Student Government she was a freshman representative to the Legislative Board and sophomore representative to the Judicial Board.

Sophomore Class President

Beverly Johnson of Mayodan, a freshman this year, defeated Louise Stacy for the office of sophomore class president. Beverly was elected into the Latin Club this year and was chosen manager of the freshman basketball team. She made the Dean's List first semester.

Speech Choir Will Broadcast

Salem College will again be on the air next Friday, March 21, at 8:00 P. M. over station W. S. J. S. The Speech Choir under the direction of Mrs. Berglund will present the Choral Reading "Voices of America" with Mr. Paul Peterson singing the solo, "I Hear America Singing." This is one of a series of programs broadcasted once a month from Salem College campus.

Art Exhibit Opens Mar. 26

Kenneth Evett, associate professor of art, has announced that a contemporary American artist exhibition will be on display in the Art Gallery in Salem College Library beginning March 26. The meeting will last approximately a month.

Also included will be the prize-winning oil by Evett entitled "Carpenter". The painting placed first in the recent North Carolina Art contest and now belongs to the North Carolina Art Gallery.

Different points of view will be represented by fifteen artists, ranging from complete abstraction and social conscious painting to realism.

Among the artists to be included in the exhibition are Ben Shahn, Jacob Lawrence, Karl Zerbe, Bordon Robinson, and Anton Refregier.
