

Freshmen Beat Seniors In First Tournament Game

The first game of the basketball tournament, Freshmen vs. Seniors, was played Thursday night, March 13. The game ended with the score 27-20 in favor of the Freshmen.

During the first three quarters the lead bounded back and forth between the two teams, with each team showing equal skill and teamwork. In the last quarter, the Freshmen began showing their strength and took the lead holding it until the end.

High scorer for the Seniors was Hallie McLean and for the Freshmen, Beverly Johnson. Outstanding guarding technique was shown by Quinerly and Roberson. Fine spirit and cooperation was shown by all the players.

The starting line-up for the two teams was:

Freshmen:	Seniors:
Johnson	r.f. Stroup
Paul	l.f. Senter
De Busk	c.f. McLean
Persons	r.g. Quinerly
Roberson	l.f. Bullock
Sargent	c.f. Heitman

Nurses Speak To Students

Miss Eleanor Lee, Assistant Professor of Nursing at the Presbyterian Hospital School of Nursing which is an affiliate of Columbia University in New York, will be on campus Monday to talk with anyone who is interested in Nursing or any related careers such as medicine, nutrition, medical secretarial work, and various specialized therapy fields. Miss Lee will address a group of faculty advisers while she is here.

Miss Marie Buckley of the Vanderbilt School of Nursing was here yesterday interviewing students interested in medicine and related fields.

Two Groups To Hold Forum

An open forum on the Palestine situation will be held Wednesday evening at 6:45 in the living room of Bitting. This meeting is being sponsored by the International Relations Club and the Y. W. C. A.

Principal speakers will be Rabbi Engle from Greensboro and Rabbi Rosenthal from Winston-Salem. They will be introduced by Alice Goldberg, president of the Jewish Girls of Winston-Salem and a day student at Salem College. A panel discussion will be held after the talks, and refreshments will be served at the end of the meeting.
