

Juniors Trounce Seniors; Sophs Win Over Juniors

By Jean Sullivan

The sophomores defeated the juniors 26-18 in the second game of the basketball season Tuesday night. The first quarter was a warming-up period. Little action was shown by either team, and at the end of the quarter the Juniors had their only lead, 4-3.

The second quarter was the sophomore's field day. Seville, Gleason, and Lanon brought the score up to 14; while Mills and Carothers got the Junior score up to 9. Mollie Darr also did some outstanding playing.

The second half was slower than the first. Both teams were constantly scrambling for the ball, but when they tried to shoot, it was of no avail. There were exceptions, however, for Watkins and Gleason made three good baskets in the third quarter. Isabel Leeper, junior guard showed hard play during the whole game. Seville was the only sophomore to make a goal in the fourth quarter; Carothers, Smith, and Mills pulled the score up to 18 for the juniors.

The lineup was as follows: juniors—Carothers, CF; Mills, LF; Smith RF; Hamilton, Morris, Leeper, and Clark, guards. Sophomores—Gleason RF; Watkins, LF; Seville, CF Lanon, LF; Taylor, Finley, and Darr, guards. Ann Mills, junior, was high scorer with five goals.

The Juniors topped the Seniors Thursday night in the third basketball game of the season by the narrow score of 27-25. The Juniors stayed a few points ahead all during the game. The high scorer for the Juniors was Ann Mills who made 17 points and for the Seniors was Betsy John Forrest who scored 8 points. Leeper and Quinerly were the outstanding guards.
