The men students began their activities Friday, September 12, with the registration of all new students. Monday night at 6 p. m. the new men students were special guests at a dinner in Corrin Hall honoring all new students. After the dinner they met with Dr. Jordan, faculty advisor of the Men's Student Government Association, in their own quarters. Further activities have been planned for the future.

New men students for 1947-48 include William Charles Baucum, Daniel Hodge, George Melville, Jr., and George E. Waynick, Jr., all of Winston-Salem; and William Phillip Long, Germantown.

Don't Pass

Attention all potential Culbertsons! There will be a progressive bridge party, Saturday night, October 4, at 8:30 in the Day Student Center. Come on down for lots of prizes and fun.

IT'S CAMELS
WITH ME!

The platter that's causing plenty of chatter in juke circles is "Skitch" Henderson's latest instrumental—"Dancing With a Deb." Boy—what a record!

It's obvious "Skitch" has had plenty of experience in tickling those ivories, and he follows that experience rule in smoking too. "I smoked many different brands and compared," says "Skitch." "My choice from experience is Camel."

Try Camels. Compare. Let your own experience tell you why more people are smoking Camels than ever before!
