

Miss Sara Smith Likes UNC; Salem, French and Research

by Marilyn Booth

James Stewart came from there. She knows his family. But he's aging, and he's not as popular as he used to be. The nice thing is that Miss Sara Smith comes from Indiana, Pennsylvania, too, and her popularity is just in its ascension.

She went to school for two years at Wilson College, in Chambersburg, Pennsylvania, and then to Indiana State Teachers College for two more years. Next came work toward the Degree of Master of Arts and Sociology at the University of North Carolina, which included helping a professor in the Institute for Research in Social Science to write a book.

Since then it's been teaching in high schools of Pennsylvania and Kentucky and now Salem, where she keeps plenty busy with a course in sociology, a course in psychology, and supervision of all our high school practice teachers.

Incidentally, her liking for Salem is the most "unqualified" thing she can say. The streets remind her of the streets in some Eastern Pennsylvania towns. Being sensitive to art, she finds satisfaction in the lines of the buildings here—and in the pretty charm of Southern girls.

It may seem that she goes to Chapel Hill every week end. Well, it isn't every week end, and anyway, she goes for research—strictly academic research. Besides, she will tell you with almost Parisien gesticulation, that makes you wonder whether "Smith" could be French, there are things about Chapel Hill that just get in your blood—even if this year's football team isn't one of them.

There are, after all, only two kinds of natures—the self-expressive and the inquiring. Miss Smith is the latter type. Her hobby—though she loves "trying" to paint, weave, and model clay—is research. Her favorite sport—though she has ridden horseback and likes to swim, walk, and dance—is research. And if circumstances were such that, as a lad of leisure, she had to look for something to occupy her life, wh, then, her desire would be—research. But the truth of it is, "I can't dream that well!"

Go South, Young Lady!

Are you popular? Do you know All the girls in our dorm—why sho! Can you call each one by name Or have you studied since you came?

In case you don't know everyone, Here are some rhymes to help the fun. Read them and see if you won't recognize All the girls even in disguise.

At the head of the stairs you'll see Our president—Louise Stacy. And with her thinking only of Dwight A dark haired gal named Janie White. Mil Matthews sings "My Wild Irish Rose" And off to Chapel Hill she goes. Another songster you will find Carolyn—"Georgia On My Mind".

Loraine likes long phone conversations Saturday night—station to station, And always there to answer that phone Is Clara Belle, "For You", she'll moan.

Doris Keith—her Jim travels miles. Jean Sloan—a Davidson pennant Lillian MacNeil knits argyles Bobbie Thorne—her Jim travels miles.

Playing the piano, that is Polly. Watching the mail (male!) that is Dolly. Collecting money for South Hall Is our Jeanne—she's on the ball! Dancing the rumba is lots of fun Zetta claims as from her we run. K. A. and Oak Ridge fight it out Over Love, my what a bout!

Full of pep with lots of good food You'll never see our Nell Smith brood. Georgia born, and loads of men June reads the Davidsonian!

Myra, Janet, Vivian and Jean All are Yankees I know you've seen. Betty Ann dates a boy named Jim. I guess you surely have seen him.

Answering the phone, praising S. A. E. A blond bombshell—Laura Harvey. Football weekends (Duke-Carolina) Mary Hill says nothing's finah!

Learning bridge at expense of all Pat Royer is blond and tall. Mary Alice Hudson, "My Kentucky Baby" Is her theme song sometimes—maybe!

Watching over all, joining in the feeds Is our Jess Byrd, doing good deeds. And I'd like to say, just in partin' This was written by Joy Martin.

... It's Joe Mooney's latest Decca disk— "Lazy Countryside"

Joe Mooney

MAYBE you've heard other good disks of this tune—but that was before Joe Mooney waxed it. His record is a standout. Another record that stands out is the record of Camel cigarettes. More men and women are smoking Camels than ever before! You'll find the answer in your "T-Zone" (T for Taste and T for Throat). Try Camels. Discover why, with smokers who have tried and compared, Camels are the "choice of experience."

Here's another great record!
