

Vicki Conquers Sandtraps; Wins Forsyth Golf Match

Not all Salemites spend their time in the library or in the smokehouse. Vicki Hamilton, a transfer sophomore from Winston-Salem, puts in her time on the golf links.

Vicki, a veteran of the links, though only 19 years old, last week copped another title for her scrapbook—the woman's championship at the Forsyth Country Club. She defeated Mrs. Albert Butler, Jr., in a close match, one-up. When they teed off for the final hole, the finalists were even. Never once during the afternoon of play was Vicki more than two-up over Mrs. Butler, keeping the match nip and tuck all the way.

This match was the first time since the war that women golfers had held a tournament to decide the Club's feminine championship.

Vicki has been playing in tournaments in Western and Piedmont N. C. since she was twelve, the young protegee of the Morganton Country Club pro. She says her start in golf was as a caddy for her parents.

Vicki is definitely an out-of-door girl, for next to golf she jikes tennis best. Before coming to Salem, Vicki went to Salem Academy for three years and to Stratford College for one year. She "Just Loves Salem" and is a major in history with an art minor—she draws too!

Definitely, Vicki is an addition to Salem!

Salemites Shun "FF"

Beware of Freshman Fobia, a temporary disease which sometimes hits students, from Freshmen to seniors. F. F. attacks the freshmen with the "I'm afraid to meet people, I'll stay in my room and write letters;" attitude. F. F. attacks the upperclassmen with the "Gee, but I wish I knew the freshmen;" attitude.

It is a rare person who can remember 82 new names and almost as many home towns. We won't attempt all 82 but let's try a few of the out-of-state girls. Mary Elizabeth Barrett and Beverly Ann Bryant are, I found out, from Ohio; Joyce Clark and Barbara Ann Cottrell from New Jersey; Betty Conner, Omelia Ruth Epperson and Betty Leppert from New York; Marianne Holman, Carol Tophan and Jane Watson from Florida; Joan Johnson from Ky.; Margaret McConnell from Tenn.; Mary Elizabeth Munk and Joan Forest from Conn.; Ann Spees from Mich.; Celia Spilker and Carol Storts from Pa.; and Patricia Thompson from Mass.

Look around and listen for names; you'll meet these and many more. Make getting acquainted your major project for the next few weeks; forget what F. F. stands for and remember that it's wonderful to meet people.
