

Athletics Accented

by Jan Ballentine

Roses are red, violets are blue,
The A. A. Dance will be fun for you!

Come down to the gym at least by nine,

Come alone or with your Valentine.
'Mid the cupids and hearts, Salemites will sail,

Dancing to the music of Harold Gale.

And, "after the ball is over," or rather in, basketball season will really be underway.

This year there's going to be A Basketball Contest. The contest is to predict the winners of the five remaining interclass basketball games. The winner or winners of the contest will receive a carton of Chesterfields. Here are the rules.
Read them carefully so you won't be disqualified:

1. All predictions must be on Chesterfield wrappers.
2. The entries must be handed to Jan Ballentine not later than 6 P. M. Tuesday, February 21, 1949.
3. The persons who predict all the games correctly will win a carton of Chesterfields at the end of basketball season.
4. Remember to be sure to sign your entry.

Below is printed a schedule of the basketball games for your convenience.
