

Salem Society

Emelyn Gillespie, Society Editor

Phone 8296

Home Economics Major Makes Plans For A Home

by Porter Evans

Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick H. Untiedt of Chevy Chase, Maryland, announce the engagement of their daughter, Ruth Adelaide, to Ellis Lively Harfield, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell E. Harfield of Bethesda, Maryland.

"Candy", a senior home economics major, is a member of the Home Economics Club and is chairman of the Costume Committee for May Day.

"El", a graduate of the Devitt Preparatory School in Washington, served for two years with the Marines in China. He is employed by the Tophagen Engineering Company in Arlington, Virginia.

Candy's engagement ring, which matches her deep blue eyes, is an Oriental sapphire in a platinum setting.

Although no definite date has been set, Candy and El are planning a small afternoon church wedding sometime this summer. Candy's sister, Carol, a sophomore at the University of Colorado, and Nancy Wray, roommate of the bride-to-be, will be Candy's attendants. Majoring in home ec will stand Candy in good stead; she is hoping to make her own wedding dress, one copied from a magazine which was originally created for a Cuban countess.

After a wedding trip to the mountains, Candy and El are planning to live in an apartment in Bethesda, Maryland.

Paynes Reads To Poetry Club Thursday Morn

The Private Party Room in Welfare's was the scene of a mid-morning coffee yesterday, given by the Thursday Morning Poetry Club. Miss Ella Breeze Paynes, Program Chairman of the club, read the following selections.

El Cid

There was a young man of Madrid
Who imagined that he was the Cid:

When they asked of him "Why?"
He could only reply
That he didn't know why, but he did.

Hoo Nose

Review of a Cook Book
Vague in plot but clear in style
It's characters escape me.
Flavor marks it all the while
And how it's helped to shape
me.

Louise Harris.

Little Waldo Matures

Little Miss Margaret Raynal was the victim of a surprise birthday party last Friday night at her home in Lehman Hall. Gowned attractively in a size 39 man's shirt and Osh Kosh B'Gosh blue jeans, little Margaret jovially received her guests as they entered. The room was attractively decorated with tin cans of Baby Breath placed at 15-inch intervals about the room. An atmosphere of congeniality and recline was created by removing the furniture, leaving scatter rugs and pillows thrown carelessly here and there. Ruth Lenkoski, in high spirits and high heels, playfully leaped from stomach to stomach of the reclining guests, causing slight unpleasantness. No one was angry when Miss Lenkoski was bound and gagged for the remainder of the evening.

Miss Eloise Baynes, Latin scholar, amused the group by debunking the Romulus and Remus theory. Miss Reigner read from Isadore Duncan's My Life. Miss Piano Aiken told dirty jokes and she, too, was bound and gagged for the remainder of the evening. Miss Betty Biles amused herself by making hen noises in the corner and Miss Janet Zimmer stuck her fingers in everybody's coffee. (two more bound and gagged) Romping playfully, Carolyn Taylor and Tootsie Gillespie enacted the Rubaiyat of Omar Khayam, with props. They were unable to get past the "jug of wine".

(Bound and gagged). Miss Dale Smith and Miss Catherine Nicholson, having been bound and gagged earlier in the evening, were sitting quietly in the corner. Little Margaret, the only participant that was free, ate all the refreshments, consisting of coffee and Chinese cabbage with chocolate sauce (an old recipe found in the Medieval Alchemy Manual).

Having tired of her guests, Margaret rolled each of them down the stairs, where Mrs. Pyron good-naturedly untied them, patted them motherly and sent them on their way. A good time was had by all.

Miss Janet Zimmer will lecture Friday at the Academy on Semitic languages. She will be assisted by Miss Betty Leppert.

.

Personals

Miss Betty Holbrook and Miss Helen Brown have gone to Raleigh this weekend. They have been accepted as participants in the state Pole-Vaulting Contest.

Miss Ronnie Aiken will spend Friday and Saturday at Oak Ridge Military Institute instructing cadets in the three-valve method of bugling. She will also demonstrate to a small group snare drum techniques.

Miss Ruth Lenkoski, assisted by a one-eyed Chinaman, will discuss "Our Relations to the Yellow Race". The meeting will take place in the George Washington springhouse in the May Dell.

Five mangled bodies were found, without heads, by the

Miss Janet Zimmer will lecture Friday at the Academy on Semitic languages. She will be assisted by Miss Betty Leppert.

Miss Carolyn Butcher will enter her scrap books in the annual Arts Forum two weeks from today at 9:30 A. M. in Greensboro.

Miss Marion Reed will speak in assembly Tuesday. Attendance is required. Her topic will be "How Edgar A. Guest Has Influenced My Life".

Miss Dot Massey has written a pamphlet on "How to Knit Three Pair of Argyle Socks in Fifteen Short Hours."

Miss Maggie McCall will demonstrate the techniques of the zither to a group of music lovers. The demonstration will be held behind the organ in Memorial Hall.

Miss Ione Bradsher's newest book, "The Funniest Thing Happened to Me" will be off the press shortly and autographed copies can be purchased at the Salem Book Store soon.

Miss Anna Closser will lecture on "How I Fed the Persian Army", based on her true experiences in the last big fracas (World War II).

Miss Carolyn Taylor will be available for sewing lessons, from 11 until 11:10 each night in Bitting's Bottom. The course will include petit-point, tatting, crocheting, and tent making. This course is included under the G. I. Bill of Rights.

The A. A., under the direction of Miss Peggy Watkins, will introduce a new sport at Salem this spring, Bear-Baiting. Those interested can contact the Game Warden or Dr. Elizabeth Welch, who will arrange for shipment of well-adjusted bears. Miss Sara Lylitch will furnish the bait.

Mr. Norman Jarrard will spend this week-end at the Guilford College Library doing research on Rhett Butler and Alexander the Great.

Salemite To Marry Co-ed; Will Be Early June Bride

by Dot Arrington

Personals

Miss Betty McBrayer will spend this weekend in the infirmary. Miss Newlin and Mrs. Durham will provide entertainment between 1 and 1:15 Friday.

Miss Bev Johnson will leave Cozy Corner for fifteen minutes during dinner Sunday.

Miss Connie Neamand has been elected by her classmates as the "Most Likely Junior To Become An Old Maid".

Misses Susan Johnson and Muriel Hines are planning to visit Miss Dot Massey at her home in Kinston, N. C.

Misses Jane Fowlkes, Sara Burts and Ruth Untiedt are planning a trip to Richmond, Va. Misses Fowlkes and Burts are going to make plans for post-graduate work next year. Miss Untiedt will meet her fiance, Mr. Ellis Harfield, for the week-end.

The S. A. E. function at Davidson will draw a good representation from Salem this week-end also. Miss Dot Arrington plans to leave the campus for the first time since exams to visit Mr. Dick Richards. Miss Joan Hassler will be the guest of Mr. David Gambrell and Miss Bet Hayes will visit Mr. Blake.

Miss Augusta Garth will attend Kappa Sig functions with her fiance, Mr. John McDonald, which will also be held at Davidson.

Miss Joyce Privette plans to visit Mrs. Carr in Charlotte and Miss Lou Myatt will be the guest of Mr. Bell in Statesville.

Miss Ann Jenkins is going home this week-end for the grand opening of the Tarboro Country Club. Miss Louise Stacy and Miss Sylvia Green are going to visit in the east too. Miss Green will be located at Chapel Hill, as the guest of Bob Newell and Miss Stacy will attend at a Phi Delta function at Duke.

Miss Mart Harrison plans to visit the beach with her fiance, Mr. Joe Blythe.

Misses Maggie Hudson and Ann Lanier are going to spend the weekend as guests at the Graylyn estate.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Grady McAuley of Rocky Mount announce the engagement of their daughter, Betsy Ruth, to Bernard Crouse Johnson, Jr., son of Mrs. Bernard Johnson and the late Mr. Johnson. The wedding is planned for June 18.

Betsy, who is a senior English major, transferred from Woman's College her sophomore year. Since she has been at Salem, Betsy has been active in the Pierrettes, taking leading roles in several plays. She has also been a member of the Education Club and has done practice teaching at Reynolds High School and Gray High this year.

Bernard, who served in the Air Corps during the war, attended Salem for two years. He took part in the men's Athletic Program and was also interested in dramatics. In fact, Betsy and Bernard met when they were co-starred in "The Barrets of Wimpole Street". Bernard is now employed by the First Federal Savings and Loan Company.

This will be an eventful year for Betsy, who will complete her practice teaching this spring and will graduate May 30. She has already begun making plans for the wedding, however. Her attendants will be Dot Arrington, Patsy Moser, Harriet Moran of Raleigh, Betsy Bremer of Rocky Mount, Patsy McAuley, Betsy's sister, and Mrs. A. J. Wyatt, Bernard's sister.

The wedding will be held in the First Methodist Church in Rocky Mount. After the wedding, the couple will return to Winston-Salem where they will make their home.

Misses Beth Kitrell and Martha Scott are having visitors from Washington and Lee, and will attend Gingham Tavern.

Mr. Harvey Ward, the number 1 amateur golfer of the nation, plans to visit Miss Katherine Ives this coming Saturday.

Miss Nell Trask will visit Dr. Joseph Hooper in Atlanta next weekend. She will stay with Miss Mary (Continued on page six)

Do you know the faces of your friends? Are you a creature that notices features? If so, you have a chance to win a pack of Chesterfields! Here's how.

First, write on an empty Chesterfield wrapper the names of the people whose features appear in the above picture. Then, bring your Chesterfield wrapper to the Salemite Office not later than 9 p. m. tonight. The first ten people who correctly identify all the features will receive a package of Chesterfields.

Remember to indicate your own name plus the time you entered the contest on your Chesterfield wrapper. Winners will be announced in next week's Salemite.

Review of a Cook Book
Vague in plot but clear in style
It's characters escape me.
Flavor marks it all the while
And how it's helped to shape
me.

Louise Harris.