

Spring Season Opens With Softball

by Jan Ballentine

Softball season is well on the way now with a double-header opening the season. Rain has delayed some of the previous planned games. The first game was between the Freshman and Seniors with the Seniors winning 17-8. Peggy Watkins pitched for the Seniors and Sara Lou Davis for the Freshman. In spite of their loss the Freshman made several exceptionally pretty plays. With the aid of the pitcher, Lisa Munk playing first and Emily Warden as catcher made a nice double out. Heavy-hitters for the game were Carolyn Taylor, who made the only home run, Nancy Wray, and Orpha Gatewood. The Sophomores led in attendance for this game.

With Cammy Lovelace and Ann Rixey alternating pitching position, the Sophomores defeated the Juniors 14-8. Ann Spencer was one of the most outstanding players; she is the Sophomore third baseman. Eula Mae Cain pitched for the Juniors. Heavy-hitters for this game were Effie Chonis and Ann Pleasants.
