

Massey Elected May Queen

Hattie M. Strong Fund Given Evans Named Dot's Maid

Miss Dot Massey, May Queen of 1950, is shown here right after her election. A brunette with hazel eyes, Dot wore blond satin trimmed with mother of pearl sequins around the neck and on the skirt.

Dot Massey of Kinston has been elected May Queen climaxing fifteen minutes of promenading and smiling before the interested student electors. Pulchritude plus was exhibit A in this election of May Queen, Maid of Honor and May Court held in Old Chapel Tuesday and Wednesday nights.

Other candidates for queen were Sally Ann Borthwick, Laura Harvey, Betsy Evans, Frances Horne and Connie Neamond. From these beauties after more smiling and bowing, Betsy Evans from Enfield was elected Maid of Honor.

Both girls won on their own with a platform of natural beauty and a campaign of becoming modesty. Dot is an English major and editor of the Sights and Insights this year. She has been on the May Court for the past two years and was a marshal her junior year. Betsy transferred to Salem in her junior year after graduating from St. Marys. She is class representative to the IRS and this is her first year on the May Court.

Wednesday night twelve girls were chosen from forty-two candidates to represent Salem beauty in the May Court of 1950.

Sally Ann Borthwick a senior from Winston-Salem is off-campus vice-president of the Student Government this year. She sings in the Choral Ensemble and presides over the Day Students Center and all its activities.

Laura Harvey a senior from Kinston will serve her third year on the May Court. Laura was a marshal in her junior year and has been a member of the Lablings. This year she is doing practice teaching in the primary grades.

Connie Neamond from Philadelphia is our Bowman Gray representative this year. Connie a member of the senior class has been a Labling and representative to the IRS.

Dr. Gramley Addresses Alumnae

Dr. Gramley will speak to the Salem Alumnae Association of Winston-Salem at 8:00 o'clock Monday night.

This is the first meeting of this organization of which Mrs. J. Harold McKeithan is president. The project of the club for this year is to revive the interest of the 900 Winston-Salem Alumnae in student life at Salem. This back to campus movement will promote interest in dramatics, music, and other undergraduate activities.

On his way back from Bethlehem, where he attended Dr. David Weinland's inauguration, Dr. Gramley will speak to the Salem Alumnae Association of Washington, D. C., at the home of Mrs. Tyre Taylor.

Rabbi Begins Lecture Series

Rabbi Herman, of Temple Emanuel, Winston-Salem, was guest speaker for Mr. Sawyer's History of Religion class on Wednesday, October 19.

This was the first of a series of eleven lectures planned by Mr. Sawyer and designed to give the students a better understanding of the different faiths.

Rabbi Herman is a recent graduate of the Hebrew Union College in Cincinnati. He and his wife came to Winston-Salem four months ago.

The lecturer discussed the different branches of Judaism: Reformed, Conservative and Orthodox. The floor was then opened for discussion and questions. The students' understanding of the Jewish faith was greatly increased by Rabbi Herman's lecture.

The series includes lectures on Catholicism, Greek Orthodox, and various Protestant faiths. In the future the Salemite will announce the speakers for each week, and all students are invited to attend the lectures and take part in the discussions.

I.R.S. Holds Room Contest

Pat Adylett and Sarah Cranford have the best all round rooms among the freshmen it was announced yesterday by the IRS room contest judges. The judges, Miss Samson, Miss Hodges, and Miss Carlson made the inspection yesterday morning after assembly.

Sarah and Pat live in 322 Clewell and their room is done in blue and yellow combinations. The bedspreads are blue plaid with yellow blankets carefully folded on top of them. The chairs are covered in blue and the curtains are yellow.

Perhaps the thing that clinched the judges decision was the green ivy in the bronze vase, hanging from the wall. It gave just the right individual touch to the room.

The winners were presented with Revlon Fashion pen and lipstick combinations and a carton of Chesterfields by the two campus representatives of Revlon and Chesterfields.

Endowment Has New Purpose

The Board of Trustees of Salem Academy and College, at their meeting on Tuesday, established a $44,133.50 fund to promote "national and international understanding" among Salem College students.

The endowment will be known as the "Hattie M. Strong Fund for National and International Understanding", and was established from a fund set up in 1945-46 in honor of Mrs. Henry Alvah Strong, donor of Strong dormitory and Corrin Refectory. In the past the endowment has been allocated to the financing of a program of aptitude and vocational testing guidance.

A report to the Salem College trustees stated that the purpose of the Hattie M. Strong Fund, as now set up, will be "to foster in Salem students an awareness of their responsibilities as citizens; to encourage an appreciation of other nations' view points and attitudes; and to encourage an awareness of national and world problems to the end that international cooperation and peace might be more quickly achieved."

To accomplish this purpose, the Fund will finance foreign student scholarships, lectures by experts in world affairs, panel discussions for Salem students with guest speakers and foreign students, and music, art and literary programs centering in foreign cultures.

GIFTS TO SALEM
A total of $5,575 in gifts to Salem since the beginning of the new fiscal year, July 1, was announced at the meeting of the Trustees.

RE-ELECTION OF TRUSTEES
Five local non-Moravian men were re-elected to the Board of Trustees for 1949-50: Archibald Craige, W. Penn Sandridge, Thomas B. Rice, Secretary of the Army
