

Miss Gage Morton (left) of the State Department of Public Instruction presents a certificate to Miss Catherine Fuller, Salem Academy maid, for having successfully completed the course in food handling offered at the college.

Cooks Received Awards For Culinary Achievements

Twenty-three members of the Negro service personnel of the Salem College and Academy dining halls have received certificates for having successfully completed a food-handling service course.

The course was given in the club dining room of the college and ran for eight sessions. Miss Gage Morton, restaurant training specialist for the Distributive Education Service of the State Department of Public Instruction, taught the course.

Employees receiving certificates for having attended seven of the eight classes are: Russell Crews, Walter Brown, Lorenzo Johnson, Ed Hemphill, Will Thacker, Cornell Ingram, Mrs. Mary Ingram, Mrs. Lena Barfield, Mrs. Vanelia Warren, Mrs. Wyona Murray, Mrs. Edith Page, Mrs. Lebel Green, Mrs. Clara Brown, Mrs. Doretha Rowe, and Mrs. Inez Bitting from the college staff. Those receiving certificates from the Academy are: Harry Campbell, Willie Block, Miss Thelma Jeffries, Miss Eloise Caldwell, Miss Catherine Fuller, Miss Rachel Robinson, and Miss Ruby Reynolds.

Alumnae Club Meeting Held

The Winston-Salem Alumnae Club of which Mrs. Harold McKeithen is president and the A. A. U. W. of which Mrs. Lucia Karnes is president held their third annual Christmas meeting Thursday night, December 8.

Among the guests who attended the meeting was Judge Susie Smith, the only woman judge in North Carolina.

Mrs. Miriam Vaughn DuBose, a Salem alumna and noted journalist, spoke on her experiences in Greece, where she and her family have lived for the past year.

A tribute was paid to the late Dr. Adelaide Fries by Miss Marsh, the alumnae secretary of Salem College.

Christmas music was provided by the choral ensemble and refreshments were served.

Patronize Our Advertisers

SALEM KNIT SHOP

on Salem Campus

Wishes You A
MERRY CHRISTMAS

O'Hanlon's Drug Store

For Over Forty Years

Western North Carolina's Best Known
Drug Store

Home Ec. Club Gives Tea

The Home Ec. Tea is to be given today at the Practice House from 3 until 5:30 p.m. It is sponsored by the Home Ec. Club, whose members will be the hostesses.

150 guests have been invited. They are the trustees of the college, academy and college faculty, Winston-Salem citizens interested in Home Ec. and people in professional Home Ec.

The girls presiding at the tea table are Carolyn Spaug Johnson, Mary Alice Hudson, Billie Jean Greene and Effie Chonis.

Christmas, of course, is the theme. The stairway is adorned with greens and the mantle hung with stockings in hopes that St. Nick soon will be there! Gingerbread men over-look the festivities from the honored position on the wall behind the buffet.

We specialize in Wedding, Birthday, and Party Cakes also Bread sliced any thickness.

DOBY'S BAKERY

240 W. 4th St. Dial 2-4126

Clothes And Dates Revealed For Annual Christmas Dance

by Sis Pooser

The Salem Christmas season will be well under way by nine o'clock on Saturday night. If you're lucky enough to have a date who has no exam on Monday, unpack your Christmas spirit and come on down to the gym. There you'll find Salem belles decked in their loveliest satins and laces.

You'll be sure to see Kenan Casten there with Bo Stack. Kenan has decided to wear a strapless ice-blue satin dress trimmed with lace. Her little blue mitts are lace, too.

Cliff (Salem's favorite date) Turner will escort Squeeky Carson to the dance. Squeeky's red and green plaid taffeta is really an eye-catcher!

Jane Watson is dating Charlie Dilts from Duke this week-end. She'll wear heavy white satin with long gloves to match.

Gold lame is certainly festive-looking, and Anne Moseley is sure to win many approving glances from Oliver Adams in her strapless dress with its matching stole. That should be well-worth Oliver's trip from Princeton.

When the shagging begins, look around for Ann Spencer and Creep Craig. Ann will wear blue satin.

Joanne Mills will look Plumb Beautiful, too, in her light blue satin trimmed in navy-blue velvet ribbon. The skirt is caught up with a huge gold flower. Marshall James should like that!

If you should see Robert Mitchum's double dancing with Sally Senter, you'll know that he is really Howard Wentz. Sally will wear a red, yellow, and green plaid taffeta.

Peggy Alderman's fushia satin formal is guaranteed to set a holiday mood for her and Sterlyn Hennis. The dress is studded with tiny satin bows in the back.

Jane Krause's date is sure to like her white nylon strapless dress. It features a wide scarlet sash.

Bill Brunson is taking a chance on next week's exams and will be there to escort Ann Jenkins to the dance. Ann's blue satin is strapless and the skirt falls in three wide tiers below the cumberbund waist.

Betty Gwen Beck has chosen a strapless dress of blue changeable taffeta to wear for Don MacPherson.

Dena Karres is dating Abner Homer Holton for the big affair. Dena's black hair and dark eyes will look lovely against her blue satin dress.

Bob Weimer is coming all the

(Continued on page five)

New note for campus wear —the Gaucho SUEDEKNIT*

"Oops," how did this get into the Salemite? We made our Gaucho Sport Shirt for men, but they are proving to be just as popular with the ladies.

It is 100% Hanespun cotton knitted to give the "feel" of fine Cashmere. Gaucho collar lies flat. Double-rib cuffs and waist band, with or without pockets. Fast Colors: Cedar Green, Dusty Gold, Palomino Tan, Marlin Blue, Sea Gull Gray, Forest Blue.

Wonderful value for only $2.25.

Featured in Winston-Salem at Bocoek-Stroud, Stith's Hine-Bagby, The Vogue, S & M Clothiers and other leading stores.

*Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

Sportswear — Underwear — Sleepers

P. H. HANES KNITTING CO.

Winston-Salem 1, N. C.