

Salem Finds Panel Success

The following are some comments which Salem students and faculty members have made upon the panel discussion which was held on the Salem campus last Thursday our International Day. The panel discussion was between a group of foreign students who were visiting from other nearby college campuses, and Salem students.

Louise Stacy "I thought it was the most stimulating event I have seen at Salem in a long time. I think we should have such programs more often because they give Salem students an opportunity to hear what foreign students think. Such programs also make Salem students more aware of their responsibilities in the world."

Dr. Singer "I think the panel was a big success. It was well-handled. The best part was that it was a student affair which has given the students a new intellectual awareness of the world problems."

Bernice Pierce "I thought it was a splendid gesture and a wonderful idea. I think that if such programs could be given more often people would express their opinions more freely because the newness of it would wear off."

Mr. Leach "Although nothing startling was said, it was interesting to watch the overtones and the interplay of the foreign students with their different feelings of nationalism."

Susan Johnson "I think that last Thursday was a big step in the progress of Salem. I should like to see more emphasis put on international affairs at Salem."

Carolyn Dunn "I think it is one of the finest things that has happened to the Salem campus. I think we should have more such programs."

Mary Lib Weaver "I was very pleased with the success of the dis-

Class Games

The junior class was behind in scoring during the course of the entire game with one exception, when there was a 12 to 12 tie. Cacky Pearson was high scorer for the juniors making 10 points, Clinky Clinkscales second making 6, then Bill Greene and Ann Pleasants making 2 each.

The freshmen scorers ran thus: Marian Lewis, 12 points; Jane Fearing, 10; Emma Sue Larkins, 6. Their guards were Ruth Derrick, Adrienne McCutcheon, Jane Harrison.

The A. A. would like to thank the cheerleaders of the teams for leading the class yells. Also a word of thanks to the spectators for coming. The A. A. hopes you enjoy the games and will continue to come to the ones in the future.

Salem Cuts

5. Permission must be obtained from the Recorder to make up work with an instructor, if an absence has been due to illness or other emergency and an excuse has been presented to the Recorder. Otherwise the responsibility lies entirely with the student for making up any work missed.

This system is to go into effect the second semester of 1949-50 and continue until the second semester of 1950-51 on a trial basis. At that time it will be reviewed with the intention of revision, if it is found desirable to make changes.

Academy Gives Chapel Program

Salem Academy students were in charge of the Chapel Program yesterday. The title of the program was, "A Day in the Life at Salem Academy."

The skit was written and directed by Mary Frances Plummer from Brevard, North Carolina; Lyn Williams from Mundelan, Illinois; and Elizabeth Christian from Lynchburg, Virginia.

The program began with an original song, "I'm in Love with Salem School." The skits that followed illustrated classes at Salem Academy, study hours, and play hours.

Miss Woolfolk was the faculty supervisor of the program.
