

Sis Reports Dates, Clothes For A.A. Dance

The candy boxes are empty and the Valentines are stored away in scrap books, but St. Valentine's Day won't be officially over on Salem campus until after Saturday night when the A. A. presents its annual formal dance. Salemites are turning out in full force for the big occasion.

As you walk in the door of the gym you'll probably see Squeaky Carson and Jim Reich waltzing around. Squeaky is getting in the spirit of the day by wearing a bright red taffeta dress.

Cacky Pearson will be dating none other than Dan Moser and she is planning to wear an off-the-shoulder green satin.

Ann Coleman is wearing satin, too, but hers is a pale pink. Ann is dating Dick Cooper.

Loma Faye Cuthbertson will look lovely for Paul Hemphill in her new nylon over satin dress. The bodice of lace is off-shoulders.

Anne Simpson is dating Jimmy Harton from Carolina this weekend and will probably wear (so her roommate told me) a full-skirted white taffeta.

B. J. Smith is wearing cloudy white net for her date, Jack Logan.

Dee McCarter doesn't quite know how to describe her dress, but after she drew a picture I concluded that she's wearing a red taffeta strapless with a saucy bustle, a full skirt and the bodice is banded with rhinestones. Of course, Dee is dating Gus Cain.

Cammy Lovelace is sure to make a hit with Bob Divine when she wears her forest green satin formal. It's an off-shoulder job with wide drapes in the front of the skirt.

Betty Beck will look like the front of a pretty Valentine in her red and white embroidered marquise ballerina dress. Don MacPherson is her date for Saturday night.

Joanne Mills is going to date Floyd McClain for the dance and will wear pale gray faille caught with fushia flowers.

Clara Belle LeGrand and Frank Larew will be there, too. Clara Belle is planning to wear a strapless aqua faille with a billowy net skirt.

Lee Rosenbloom is dating none other than that heart-breaking Carolina gentleman, Joe Clark. Lee will wear orange chiffon which will undoubtedly blend beautifully with the Valentine decorations. It has a mandolin neckline, too!

Homer Holton and Dena Karres wouldn't miss this dance for anything. Homer says he wants to see Dena in her new yellow satin formal. It's off-shoulder and edged with Chantilly lace—gloves to match.

Martha Scott is dating Bill Myers and is wearing an out-of-this-world creation of red nylon net.

Sarah Cranford prefers the ballerina look and has chosen a green ankle-length dress to wear for Howard Cox.

Ann Spencer is wearing pale orchid taffeta with complicated shirring on the skirt and at the off-shoulder neckline. Her date is Marvin Goodman.

The skirt of Vicki Hamilton's white taffeta dress is tiered in wide, black lace-edged ruffles. Mack Hagaman will be Vicki's date for Saturday night.

Mary Lib Weaver has stars in her eyes when she dances with Ray Daniels. And Ray has stars in his eyes when he looks at Mary Lib in her black velvet dress with the white taffeta skirt. The wide skirt is caught up with black velvet flowers.

Hugh Larew is going to escort Carroll Johnstone Saturday night. Carroll will wear a strapless blue satin dress with a fushia stole.

Virginia Herman will wear a ballerina-length dress. It's black eyelet taffeta with a scarlet underskirt. Virginia is dating Bill Whithers.

White faille should look lovely on Lou Huntley. Lou is dating Jack Covington.

Take a good look—it isn't often that you see them all together. In case you don't know, from left to right they are Bill, Digr, Hugh, and Stevie.

The Gramley Boys Camp And Hike, Play Football And Ride Their Bikes

So far as we know, the basement of the Office Building is the only place on campus still unvisited by the Gramley boys. The four of them have explored fourth floor Main Hall, the assorted crannies of our strong and ivy-covered walls, until now they're recognized as the president's sons by everyone from the Trustees to Mr. Satterfield.

To those who can't keep their names straight, though, we offer the following reminder. Chronologically, the Gramleys are:

Hugh, age sixteen, a junior at Reynolds High, is a six foot tall football player—right tackle, that is. In a few weeks he'll qualify as senior life-saver, after completing a course at the Y. M. C. A. He and the next in line, Bill, are ardent members of the Explorers Club. Back in Pennsylvania they had a high old time climbing in the Catskills, and going deep-sea fishing. So far, they haven't seen much of our Tar Hill terrain. Hugh's views of the North Carolina hills have been limited to what could be seen from the bus on one of their football trips.

Bill, age fourteen, is in the ninth grade at Reynolds, but he's a mite taller than Hugh. He's forever listening to the radio—Bob Hope or Sam Spade preferably—which incidentally doesn't keep him from being on the dean's list. An art course under Mr. Brandt took up his Saturday mornings last semester. Result: one self-portrait and numerous pen and ink sketches.

Digs, the next in line, is thirteen. He gets his nick-name from the initials of his full name which is Dale Illick Gramley. Digs is, at present, working on a first aid project for his health class at Reynolds. First aid, however, is not his first interest. He spends much of his spare time working on his coin collection that one of his Pennsylvania cousins started for him at Christmas. Digs is also musically inclined. He has had several years of piano, and this Christmas he sang the solo part of "Morning Star" in the Moravian Junior Choir.

Last and least in size and years, perhaps, but not in personality, is seven year old Stevie. He spends part of his day in second grade at Central School, but after two most any afternoon you can see him playing with Bobbie Spough on back campus. At home he likes to listen to his Bobo the Clown records or have someone read him a story. Some afternoons Steve goes to the bakery for a chat with Mr. Brunner, who furnishes him with cookies. Other times he visits Harry Lee or the Salemite Office in the basement of Main Hall. Incidentally, Stevie is collecting coins too and would "certainly appreciate it" if anyone could tell him where he could find a Flying Eagle penny.

Hill

It is hard to say whether we made more trips down standing or seated, but in our imagination we were Norwegian experts. After hours of this daring sport we set out for home, a little slower than we came. Back through the woods, over the fence, and across the field we walked, guided by the lights in the house that was already settling itself for the night.

(Editor's Note: The Hill was contributed to the Salemite contest by a member of Miss Byrd's freshman composition class.)

Nominating

Each student is urged to give serious thought to elections and to make suggestions to the representatives of the Nominating Committee. The representatives are: Louise Stacy, Susan Johnson, Sally Ann Borthwick, Jane Krauss, Betty MacBrayer, Carolyn Dunn, Beverly Johnson, Polly Harrop, Dot Massey, Dale Smith, Jane Hart, Lyn Marshall, Clinky Clinkscales, Lola Dawson, Marilyn Moore, Winkie Harris, Squeaky Carson, Miss Covington and Dr. Gramley.

Pierrettes Plan Three One-Act Plays Soon

"Lost Victory", "Sunday Costs Five Pesos" and "Lima Bean" are the three plays that the Pierettes decided at their meeting last Wednesday night to produce.

The group voted to take the one-act tragedy "Lost Victory" to the dramatics festival at Chapel Hill this spring. This play by Nortu Baker has a cast of five women. It is the story of Agatha Dorm, who rules over her three sisters and causes death and unhappiness. All of the roles in the play are major ones, and each one offers an excellent chance for characterization.

The second play, "Sunday Costs Five Pesos", will have an all freshman cast. Miss Nicholson will direct the play and will be responsible for the production.

"Lima Bean" is a fantasy with a cast of two people. The play calls for graceful dance movements.

Tryouts will be open to everyone. A notice will be posted concerning them. All three plays will be presented at Salem the latter part of March.

The new junior members of the organization were selected at this meeting. They are: Julie Wright, Fae Deaton, Florence Spough, Emma Sue Larkins, Jackie Bachelor, Andrea Brunner, Florence Cole, Marilyn Samuel, Anne Lowe, Ann Simpson, Ann Rhyne, Jane Fearling, Harriett Hall, and Grace Lynch.
