

Foreign Scholarships Announced

The Hattie M. Strong Foundation of Washington, D. C., will give a scholarship for a foreign student to attend Salem for the year 1950-1951, Mrs. Strong announced this week. The scholarship will include board, room and tuition.

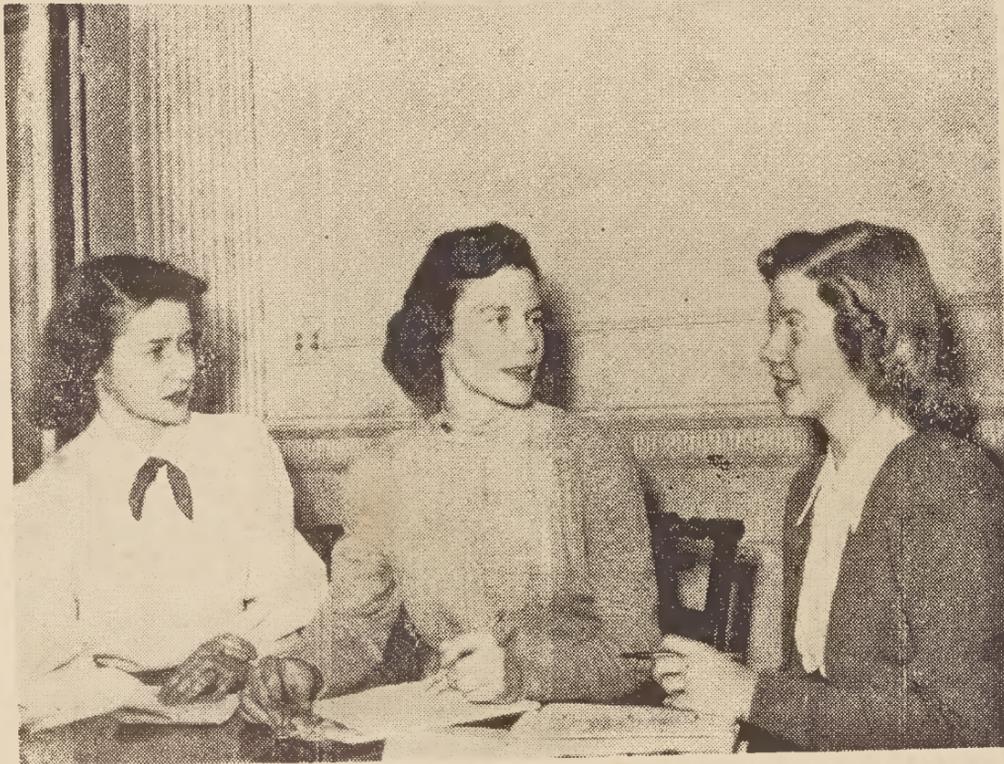

The scholarship is to be given in an effort to allow a deserving foreign girl to attend an American college and to foster a spirit of international feeling on the Salem campus.

This scholarship is in addition to scholarships that the income from the Strong Fund for National and International Understanding will provide for.

Marilyn Moore, freshman class president, has announced that her class will endeavor to raise the cost of tuition for one foreign student ($390) for next year at Salem. Mrs. Strong has offered $100 toward this goal.

The administration announced this week that three members of the Board of Trustees have contributed $100 each toward a possible scholarship to be established by the Board for another foreign student to come to Salem.

Festival Selects Play Director

Miss Catherine Nicholson of the Salem Faculty will make her directorial bow in a major Little Theater production sponsored by the Piedmont Festival Committee.

The play will be Thornton Wilder's "The Skin Of Our Teeth". It is to be the drama event of the 1950 festival. The committee states that the play is a fantastic comedy, the satirical study of the adventures of the Antrobus family down through the ages. It won the Pulitzer Prize.

Try outs for the play were held at 8 p.m., Thursday at the Y. W. C. A. The play calls for six men and six women in the cast, as well as a large number of "extras".

Miss Nicholson is an instructor in the English Department, a graduate of Flora MacDonald College and the University of North Carolina. She has her Master's degree from the University, and she is working on a Master's degree in theater at Northwestern University.

The play will be presented Wednesday, May 17, in the Reynolds Auditorium as the fourth major event of the 1950 Piedmont Festival.

Frosh Projects Announced

The freshman class is working on several projects.

Every Wednesday night at 10:00, members of the class sell doughnuts and milk in Clewell. This is not only for the girls in Clewell but for all girls on campus.

Another project is through the Foster Parents Association in New York. The freshman class is adopting a war orphan, and each girl is to pay one dollar and eighty cents. This project will only last until the end of the school term.

The largest and most promising project will be held April 1. The freshmen are planning a "Baby Show" presenting children of the Alumnae, ages two through five. The purpose of this project is to raise money for and interest in bringing foreign students to Salem.

Friends Of Library Meet

Mrs. Charles Hopkins, librarian at the University of North Carolina, will speak at the annual meeting of the Friends of the Salem College Library. The meeting will be held Tuesday, March 7, at 8:30 p.m.

Mrs. Haddon Kirk, chairman of the Board of Directors, will preside. New board members and chairman will be announced.

Mrs. Hopkins will review recent books, such as "Home Lawn" "I Leap Over The Wall" "Sheltering Sky" "A Long Day's Dying" "The Parasites" and "The Domestic Manners Of The Americans".

A local Winstonian has given first editions and manuscripts for exhibit. Miss Siewers urges all Salemites to attend.

Mrs. Robert Fowler To Be New Nurse

Mrs. Robert Fowler of Winston-Salem will be the new nurse in the infirmary. She will replace Mrs. Sue Durham who has resigned. Mrs. Fowler is a graduate of the University Hospital in Philadelphia. She is not a stranger here, as she nursed here during May of last year. Her appointment becomes effective on March 8.

Duke Glee Club To Perform Here

Seats are now on sale at Salem College for the nationally famous Duke University Men's Glee Club, under the direction of Jo Foster Barnes, which is to be presented Saturday night, March 4, in the Reynolds Auditorium. Featured with the Glee Club will be a pianist, soloists, and quartettes.

Tickets, priced at fifty cents for students and one dollar for adults, are being sold by Sarah Hamrick, Muggins Bowman, Miriam Swaim, Barbara Lee, Sis Honeycutt, Sallie Kerner, and Marilyn Moore.

* The training program for the new officers of the major organizations on campus will begin March 16. The purpose of the program is to acquaint the officers with their duties before installation begins on April 25. A series of lectures and meetings have been scheduled.

Dr. Singer will lecture on "Good Government" on March 21. On March 23 Dr. Granley will speak on "Leadership". Jane Krauss will talk on "The Student Budget" on March 28. All of these lectures will be held at 6:45 p.m. in Room 1.

Joint Choirs Give Vespers

Vespers will be held Sunday afternoon, March 5, at 5 p.m. in the Home Moravian Church. This will be a joint musical program with the Home Moravian Choir and the Salem College Choral Ensemble. Paul W. Peterson will direct, and Rose Kapp will be organist. Vespers will begin with an organ prelude followed by Ippolitoff's "Bless the Lord, O My Soul" and Noble's "Go To Dark Gethsemane". Rose Ellen Bowen, violinist, will play Mascagni's "Cavalleria Rusticana" during the prayer. Barbara Lee, soprano, and Betty Tesch, pianist, will assist the Home Church Adult Choir with "Great is Jehovah" by Schubert. Jack Crim, tenor, will sing "Thanks be to Thee" by Handel. Florence Cole will give a Reading; and a quartette composed of Sarah Ann Slawter, Betty Pfaff, Betty Shepp, and Bety Tesch will sing the Negro Spiritual "Were You There?" Miss Gertrude White, soprano, will sing Recitative and Aria: "Break in Woe" (St. Matthew's Passion) by Bach and "Hear my Supplication" (Litany in B Flat) by Mozart. Following the announcements and the organ offertory by Rose Kapp, the Salem College Choral Ensemble will sing four selections: "Come Spirit 'tis His Day" by Bach, "Thee, Lord, Most Holy" by Satern, "Thou the All-Holy" by Gibbons and "Puere Hebrearum" by Thompson. The congregation will sing a hymn followed by the Benediction and Postlude.

Everybody is invited to attend the musical vespers.

Workshop To Be Held

An Alumnae Workshop for Salem College Alumnae Club presidents will be held on the campus Friday and Saturday, March 3 and 4, Miss Lelia Graham Marsh, Salem Alumnae Secretary, announced this week.

Friday night at 6 p.m. dinner will be served to the presidents in the club dining room. At 6:30 p.m. there will be a coffee in the Alumnae House. Following this the members will hold a business session led by Mrs. Tom Wilson of Raleigh. The purpose of this meeting is to plan Alumnae Day for May of this year.

The executive board of the Alumnae Association will hold a meeting Saturday at 10 a.m. in the trustees' room.

Club presidents from many areas of North Carolina are expected to attend the work-shop. There will also be several attending from out-of-state. Miss Marsh commented that for the first time, Friday night, all of the beds in the Alumnae House will be in use.

School Of Music Presents Program

The Salem College School of Music presented another Music Hour Thursday, March 2, at 4 p.m. in Memorial Hall. The program was as follows: Mozart's "Theme with Variations from Sonata in A Major" by Ann Morgan; "Chopin's Nocturne in C Sharp minor" by Helen Creamer; Rachmaninoff's "Prelude in G minor" by Anne Rodwell; and "Mendelssohn's Concerto in G minor, Op. 25, Molto Allegro con fuoco" by Doris Keith.

"Fallen Idol" Starts Sunday At Forsyth

"Fallen Idol", acclaimed by New York critics as one of the eight best movies of 1949, will be at the Forsyth Theater on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday of next week. Starring in the movie are Ralph Richardson and Michele Morgan. The acting of eight year old Bobby Henry has been rated "superlative."

Juniors Win Stunts Night

The junior class, for the second consecutive year, won the first prize of $5 at Stunt Night last night. The freshman class, with their true-to-Salem-life skit, won the $2 second prize.

The Junior class gave a skit entitled "Queen Guinevere's Square Table", which was a satire on the pageant of May Day. Cacky Pearson, Winkie Harris, Lee Rosenbloom and assorted beauties were the leading performers.

The Sophomore class did a take off on Salem social life in the form of King Lear. Muggins Bowman was in charge of their program.

The Freshman class also did a take off on Salem's social life. Their skit was entitled "Night As A Salemite or Kissing At Clewell". A chorus of girls dressed in pajamas sang lyrics set to the music from "South Pacific".

The Senior skit was a parody on musical events. It was done in pantomime with various members of the class performing solos, sextettes and playing instruments of the orchestra. Wesley Snyder was outstanding as the conductor of the orchestra.

The judges for the event were Margaret Raynal, Mr. Brandt, and Miss Hodges.

Mary Lib Weaver, chairman of WSSF, has announced that Stunt Night netted approximately $50 for the Fund.
