

March 22nd is the first day of spring
How many more girls will get a ring.

The Salemite

We are through with six-week tests
Now faculty can grade them while students rest.

Volume XXX

Salem College, Winston-Salem, N. C., Friday, March 17, 1950

Number 17

LeGrand Is New Editor

Clara Belle LeGrand

Clara Belle LeGrand was elected Editor-in-Chief of the Salemite for 1950-51 Friday, March 10. Lee Rosenbloom was the other nominee.

Clara Belle is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. LeGrand of Mocksville. She was a member of the French Club her freshman and sophomore year. This year she is a member of the I. R. C. and on the May Day Committee. Clara Belle has worked on the Salemite for three years.

Clara Belle is double majoring in English and history. She also plans to get a teacher's certificate and will practice teach next year.

Clara Belle will edit her first Salemite March 31.

Girl Scouts Will Use Campus for Camp

The Winston-Salem council of the Girl Scouts will use Salem College campus for a Day Camp from July 11-21. These plans were announced by the executive committee of the Board of Trustees Tuesday, March 18.

Creamer, Fretwell Give Piano, Voice Recital

Helen Creamer

The Salem College School of Music presents Helen Creamer, pianist and Lila Fretwell, soprano in their Graduating Recital Monday, March 20, 1950 at 8:30 p. m. in Memorial Hall. The soloist will be assisted by Nell Folger Glenn, Margaret Vardell, and Charles G. Vardell. Accompanist will be Carolyn Lovelace, flutist.

The program is as follows:
Rejoice Greatly (from the Messiah) Handel
Vaghiissima Tembianza Douandy
Ungeuld Schubert

Bids For New Building Have Been Chosen

The bids for the construction of the new Salem College Science building have been let, the executive committee of the Board of Trustees announced Tuesday, March 14.

The total expenditure for the construction of the building is to be $149,686. This figure is exclusive of equipment which has been estimated to cost about $40,000. Construction is to begin in the near future and the building is to be completed by December 1, 1950.

The general construction contract has been given to the Southeastern Construction Company of Charlotte. The amount of money involved in this contract is $130,060.

Reynolda, Inc., was the successful bidder for the plumbing contract. The bid of this company was $9,130.

The contract of the heating equipment has been awarded to the Crater-Disher-Ketner Company of Winston-Salem. This company's bid was $10,496.

The architecture of the Science building will be in keeping with the established campus pattern; the building will be veneered with hand made brick and roofed with hand made tiles. Terrazo flooring will be used throughout the laboratories, classrooms and on the stairways. The building will be of concrete and steel construction and will be fire proof.

Four floors are to be built. The lower floor, or basement, will provide for a stock-room, a dark-room and laboratories for quantitative, and laboratories for quantitative.

The main floor, to be on the campus level, will consist of a lecture room, offices, a general chemistry lab and a biology lab.

The third floor will contain biology labs, a physics lab, offices and a classroom.

The fourth floor will be used exclusively by the home economics department and will provide for six
(Continued on page three)

Kittrell, Clinkscales To Head May Day And Athletic Association For '50-'51

* Mary Beth Kittrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Kittrell of Pinetops, was elected May Day chairman for 1950-51 last week by the student body. Beth is an Economics and Sociology major. She is now on the May Day Committee for her second year.

* Araluen Clinkscales was elected by the student body to be President of the Athletic Association for 1950-51. Clinky has been A. A. tennis manager for two years, a member of the hockey varsity for two years, is a member of the Monogram Club, and is this year the President of the junior class. She is also a member of the Scorpion, the I. R. S. council, and a member of the Salemite staff. She is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. G. S. Clinkscales of Anderson, S. C.

Civic Music Presents Shaw

The Winston-Salem Civic Music Association will present the Robert Shaw Chorale in a concert Saturday, March 18, at Reynolds Auditorium at 8:30 p.m. Doors will be opened at 8:00 p.m. This is the last concert of the 1949-50 season.

The Winston-Salem Civic Symphony will present a concert with Carroll Glenn, guest violin soloist, on Tuesday, March 21, in Reynolds Auditorium at 8:15. The program is as follows: Adagio from Toccata and Fugue in C Major by Bach-Stokowski; Komm Susser Tod (Come Sweet Death) by Bach-Stokowski; Concerto in D Major by Beethoven by Carroll Glenn, Soloist; English Folk Song Suite by Vaughn Williams; and Caprice Espagnole by Rimsky-Korsakoff. Tickets may be obtained at the door.

Education Club Salem Plans To Receive State Charter Restoration

The Salem College Education Club will become a charter member of the National Future Teachers of America next Tuesday evening, March 21. At 7 p. m. Dr. Gramley will present the charter to the group at a meeting in the Day Students Center.

Bernice Pierce, President of the Education Club, will conduct the meeting. Upon presentation of the charter, Dr. Gramley will speak to members. New members will be taken in from the Sophomore Class and officers for next year will be elected. The meeting will be closed by the serving of refreshments.

Salem Plans Restoration

Mayor Marshall C. Kurfees of Winston-Salem has called a meeting of the citizens of the town to hear a report on the possibilities of restoring Old Salem. The meeting was called for Thursday night, March 16, at eight o'clock and was held in the ballroom of the Hotel Robert E. Lee. If the plan is accepted, a board of trustees will be named at this time.

The area under consideration has been determined by the City-County Planning Board and is bounded on the west by the railroad tracks, on the east by the Athletic Field of Salem College, on the south by Central School, and on the north by Belevs Street.

Charm Week Begins Tuesday

Charm Week begins on Tuesday, March 21. This annual event sponsored by the I. R. S. serves as a reminder to all students that good grooming and neatness at all times is an essential part of everyone's life.

Carolyn Dunn, president of the I. R. S. has announced the following plans for Charm Week. In chapel on Tuesday the I. R. S. will have a speaker to talk on charm after graduation. Wednesday night at 6:30 there will be an after dinner coffee hour in the Day Students Center. This will be followed by a Fashion Show sponsored by Sosnik-Thalhimer who will provide the spring clothes, and Revlon who will supply the proper make-up for each costume. The May Court will model these spring fashions.

To conclude Charm Week a representative from Revlon will speak in chapel on Thursday on the necessity of good grooming in the business world.

Luncheon To Honor Gray

President and Mrs. Gramley will be guests at a luncheon honoring the new President of the Greater University of North Carolina, Gordon C. Gray. The luncheon will be held in the Founder's Room of the Morehead Building in Chapel Hill at 1 p.m., March 22.

The presidents and their wives of all North Carolina colleges have been invited to attend. The luncheon is being given by Mr. and Mrs. William Carmichael. He is Comptroller and business manager of U. N. C.

Following the luncheon the presidents and their wives have been invited to view the Easter Pageant in the Morehead Planetarium.

Alumnae Show Enthusiasm At Teas

The series of Alumnae teas and luncheons which have been held recently prove that the Alumnae are very enthusiastic about Salem and the new events that are constantly taking place. The next Alumnae tea and meeting is to be held in Fayetteville on March 23. Dr. Gramley, Miss Marsh and Miss Byrd will attend.

Pooser Is New Editor

Sis Pooser

Wylma Pooser was elected Editor-in-Chief of 1950-51 Sights and Insights by the junior class on Wednesday, March 8. She defeated Jane Hart. Wylma is now on the editorial staff of the Salemite and is a member of the Honor Society. She is an English major and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Pooser of Spindale.

|                                      |               |
|--------------------------------------|---------------|
| Echo Song                            | Bishop        |
| Miss Fretwell                        |               |
| Flute Obligato, Miss Lovelace        |               |
| Prelude to "Alceste"                 |               |
| Lully-Templeton                      |               |
| Aria from Third Violin Sonata        | Bach-Godowsky |
| Capriccio in G minor, Op. 116, No. 3 | Brahms        |
| Miss Creamer                         |               |
| Chere Nuit                           | Bachelet      |
| Marie Antionette's Song              |               |
| Arr. Jacobson                        |               |

(Continued on page three)