

Orientation

11:00 a.m. the Academic procession of the faculty officially began Salem's 179th year. After assembly classes began on a thirty-minute schedule. At 7:00 p.m. Miss Eva Belle Covington, economics professor, spoke to all new students in the Day Student Center on "The Foundation of Good College Citizenship". Later the juniors entertained their little sisters in Strong Basement.

Classes will begin on regular schedule Saturday. Saturday night an outdoor supper will be held near the gym.

All students will attend the Sunday morning service at the Home Moravian Church. After dinner the Alumnae will sponsor a coffee in the Day Student Center. The Vesper Service Sunday night is to be a recognition of the freshmen by the Y. W. C. A.

boys and girls. Violetta left her home on August 19th. Behind her, she left her mother and father who is an attorney at law, and two younger sisters. Violetta came to New Orleans by boat and then came to Winston-Salem by plane. The most fascinating thing to her in the line of clothes is bluejeans. She says, "We don't wear the bluejeans. I love them."

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

Number 1...THE PUFFIN BIRD

"What's all the huffin' and puffin' about?
I've been a Puffin all my life!"

You may think this "bird" is funny — but he's no

odder than many of the cigarette tests you're asked to make these days.

One puff of this brand — one sniff of that. A quick inhale — a fast exhale — and you're supposed to know what cigarette to smoke from then on. The sensible test doesn't have to rely on tricks and short cuts. It's a day-after-day, pack-after-pack tryout — for 30 days. That's the test Camel asks you to make! Smoke Camels regularly for 30 days. Your "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste)

is the best possible proving ground for any cigarette.

After you've made the Camel 30-Day Mildness Test, we believe you'll know why...

Vol XL

Los Angeles, Calif.,

No. 135

In Los Angeles, there is always a friendly gathering of University of Southern California students at Ted Owen's. And, as in colleges everywhere, ice-cold Coca-Cola helps make these get-togethers something to remember. As a refreshing pause from the study grind, or on a Saturday-night date—Coke belongs.

Ask for it either way... both trade-marks mean the same thing.
