

News In Brief

sophisticated comedy, contemporary, with a direct theme and a number of good laughs. Robert Garland of the New York Journal-American had the following to say: "Fay Kanin has written an ardent, adult play with laughter on the surface and underneath, a fierce almost frightening cry for common-sense"

The characters in the play vary from the ingenu and sweet to the sophisticated and not so sweet. The cast calls for eleven women of varied talents: pretty-ugly, brilliant-stupid, thin-fat, etc. Two of the leading male roles are being taken by William Griffith and Bryan Balfour.

The rehearsal schedule will run much shorter than that of "Liliom." The production will be held on November 15 and 16 in Old Chapel.

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests Number 2...THE BLOW FISH

"Shucks—I blew in when I should've blown out!"

Pity the poor Piscis! He's been making all those trick cigarette tests you've been reading about! He's taken one puff of this brand — one sniff of that. A quick inhale of cigarette "A" — a fast exhale of cigarette "B" — and he's still confused! Seriously, isn't the sensible way to test a cigarette to smoke pack after pack, day after day?

That's the test Camel asks you to make — the 30-Day Mildness Test. Smoke Camels — and only Camels — regularly for 30 days. Your "T-Zone" (T for Throat and T for Taste) — is the real proving ground for any cigarette. After you've tried Camels as your regular smoke, you'll know why...

More People Smoke Camels than any other cigarette!
