If you are a loyal Salemite, you will follow the advice of Clinky Clinkscales, President of the A. A., and support your class by attending he games.

Posture Week

The week of October 30 through November 4 will be good posture week on Salem campus.

This is sponsored by the hygiene class and the Athletic Association. During this week, especially, the two sponsors urge everyone to practice the habit of good posture.

Lola Views Play Practice Incidents

By Lola Dawson

The lights of Old Chapel have burned brightly for the past few weeks. The cast of "Goodbye My Fancy" can always be found either studying lines in the back or going over scenes on the stage.

Several new people on campus are taking part in the play. Cary Borges has the female lead, Agatha Reed. Cary is from Cuba and has been in three plays for the Methodist Church in Havana. She was in an operetta in high school and she played one of the "ladies" in "Mary Huard" by Schiller. When asked why she was interested in acting, Cary said, "Acting is one of the most exciting emotions one can feel. I like to act because I can live in each character. I can transmit a message to others and live a new life".

Bill Sciffeths, who is playing the male lead, works at the Wachovia Bank and has been interested in acting for many years. During his dramatic career he has been in "The Cradle Song", "My Sister Eileen", "Over Twenty One", "Stage Door", "Claudia", "Outward Bound", "The Late George Appley", "Pursuit of Happiness", etc.

Bill is also interested in airplanes and fishing.

A sophomore transfer, Mary Susan Leonard, is playing the part of Miss Shackelford. Mary Susan is from Kingsport, Tennessee, and was in her first play in the ninth grade. Later she has the part of Dora in "Dear Ruth". She has the lead in "This Night Shall Pass" and was president of the National Thespians her senior year. Mary Susan transferred from Smith and won first prize at the Tennessee Interscholastic Meet.

Nancy Ramsey from Winston-

Salem transferred from W. C. and is playing the part of Woodie. Her first part was in "Riders To The Sea". This was followed by "Spider Island", "Letters to Luciene", and "Rehearsal". Nancy is an English major and as she puts it, "a frust-play she said, "Woodie is a char-rated pianists". Of her part in the acter and a wit, but she's very sincere in her devotions. She's the kind of person I'd like to know".

Jim Deldrick is a designer at "Bassett-Sack" and is a member of the Winston-Salem Little Theater. He did scene designing and painting for the U. S. O. in Europe, and he works with oil paintings as a hobby. Jim is playing the part of Dr. Putt in "Goodbye My Fancy". His first part was in "See My Lawyer" which was presented by the Little Theater two weeks ago. Of his performance, the Journal-Sentinel said, "He shows great promise".

Senior Personals

Karl Marx was elected "Sweetheart of Salem" last week. He was presented with a wreath of red poinsettias and holly berries. Our best to you, Comrade.

Betty Beck, Cammy Lovelace, Ann Spencer and Sis Pooser are the proud owners of a new 1950 tractor with silent clutch, traction gears, and Goodrich treads. The girls will use it for trips to nearby amusements spots—Central, Gray and Reynolds.

Steak suppers will be provided for the entire student body by the Seniors Wednesday night. The event is a house-warming to celebrate the installation of a modern kitchen, complete with a 1950 Hot-point electric range in the basement of Biting.

Clara Justice has just received a contract from Hollywood. Someone sent in her caricature, done by Dalvidore Salli, and Cecil B. DeMille immediately came to Winston-Salem in order to contact Clara.

"Dotted Swiss Inn" will be held Saturday night by the Archology Club in the catacombs. Special guests will be cub scouts from Pack 29. All girls desiring dates with the scouts for the event will please contact Harry Martin, Head Wolf.

All Seniors in Milton class are to be congratulated for their extremely high grades on the six weeks' test; Dr. Todd has exempted them from his future all-inclusive general question exams.

Miss Jane Hart is now the new Fatima cigarette representative on campus. "Open 'em, chew 'em, sniff 'em, jump up and down on 'em", says Jane, "You'll never smoke again."

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

Number 6...THE TURTLE

"I should never have stuck my neck out!"

They had our slow-moving brother moving at too fast a pace with those quick-trick cigarette tests! A fast puff... a swift sniff... a quick inhale... a rapid exhale. Terrapin's head was spinning — didn't know if he was coming or going! But he slowed down to his own speed — decided there was no need to rush. After all, he figured, how could anyone possibly prove cigarette mildness so fast? And he was right, too! That's why we suggest: The sensible test... the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camels as your steady smoke — on a pack after pack, day after day basis. No snap judgments needed. After you've enjoyed Camels — and only Camels — for 30 days in your "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste) we believe you'll know why...

More People Smoke Camels than any other cigarette!

Police Call Prom...
Coke

In Princeton, New Jersey, there is always a friendly gathering of Princeton students at the Campus Center. And as in university campus haunts everywhere, ice-cold Coca-Cola helps make these get-togethers something to remember. As a refreshing pause from the study grind, or when the gang gathers around—Coke belongs.
