

Cast For "Pygmalion" Is Announced

The Pierrettes under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Riegner will present Pygmalion by George Bernard Shaw on March 14 and 15. This play about a Professor of Phonetics who tries to turn a flower girl from the streets of London into a duchess in six months contains many comic problems which are resolved with both humor and skill in the brilliant dialogue.

It has been produced many times and has challenged famous actresses of the stage, such as Lynn Fontaine and Gertrude Lawrence in the most recent production of 1946, and, as a movie, Wendy Hiller starring with Leslie Howard. The Pierrettes introduce two new actors to their Salem audience: Dr. William Todd and Douglas Faley. Bryan Balfour, a popular and well-known member of the group, assumes the double role of scene designer and male lead.

This period play has necessitated a large costume crew both for designing and assembling properties, and the three stage sets contribute to the vivid effect.

Dr. Welch Attends Meet

Dr. Elizabeth Welch represented Salem at a state meeting in Raleigh on Monday, February 12, concerning a possible speed-up educational program during the national emergency. The group decided not to sacrifice scholastic and college standards in a possible acceleration program.

Colonel T. H. Upton, State Director of Selective Service, spoke to the group and explained present draft regulations concerning students.

Approximately 75 representatives of colleges and universities and city and county superintendents attended. The group will meet again on March 27 to hear a report from the special committee. This committee was selected to study how educators could best help people of draft age to get as much schooling as possible before being drafted.

Board Seeks $22,000

The executive and finance committees of the Board of Trustees of Salem College and Academy met at noon today in the club dining room to consider the quiet campaign for $22,000 to be conducted to finance the cost of repairs to the power plant and heating system at Salem.

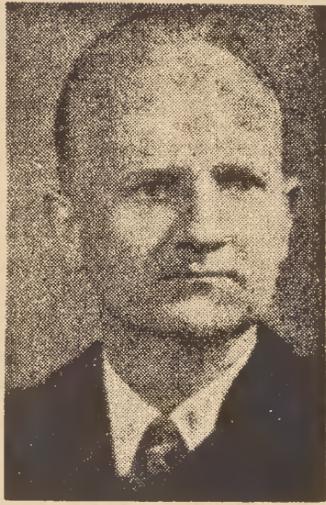

Frank F. Willingham, chairman of the executive committee of the Board, presided.

Girl Scouts Will Use Campus In July

The Winston-Salem Girl Scout Council has been granted permission by the Salem administration to hold its annual day camp on campus July 9-13 and 15-20.

The camp will pay special attention to swimming instruction. Similar day camps have been held on the campus in the past.

Dr. Raymond Lindquist And Dr. Edward Pruden Will Speak In Both Salem Assemblies Next Week

Dr. Edward Pruden

Both Speakers Participants In Winston-Salem Preaching Mission At Reynolds Auditorium February 18-25

Dr. Raymond I. Lindquist and Dr. Edward H. Pruden will speak in assembly at Salem next week.

Dr. Lindquist will speak on Tuesday and Dr. Pruden will speak on Thursday. Both men are in Winston-Salem as speakers for the local Preaching Mission which is being sponsored by the Winston-Salem Ministers Association from February 18 to the 25.

Dr. Lindquist is pastor of the historic Old First Presbyterian Church in Orange, New Jersey. He frequently speaks at churches, schools and colleges throughout the United States.

Dr. Pruden is pastor of the First Baptist Church in Washington, D. C. This is the church which President Truman attends. He holds a Ph. D. degree from the University of Edinburgh, Scotland, and is President of the American Baptist Convention.

Dr. Gramley will preside at the Youth Night service at 7:30 Saturday, February 24 in Reynolds Auditorium. This service is primarily, but not exclusively, for high school students.

Griffin, Hart, McCarter Are Finalists

Betty Griffin, Jane Hart, and Dee McCarter were elected by the student body as the three finalists in the "Miss Student Teacher" project of the F. T. A.

These three girls will appear next week before a committee made up of faculty members and city and county school representatives to tell their philosophies of education and why they chose teaching as their profession. This committee will then select "Miss Student Teacher" of Salem.

Betty and Dee are Spanish majors, and they did their practice teaching in high school Spanish. Jane is a math major. She did her practice teaching in the third and fourth grades.

The girl who is chosen "Miss Student Teacher" of Salem will be presented at the state N. C. E. A. meeting in Asheville on April 13 along with representatives from 22 other North Carolina Colleges. This is a statewide project of the F. T. A. to interest more college students in becoming teachers.

Classes See Movies On Paul

Rev. Sawyer will show a series of religious movies to his Religion classes and to anyone else who wishes to attend them February 14 and 21.

The first is that of "Paul on the Damascus Road" and the second is "Paul on the Road to Jerusalem." These movies are a series put out by Cathedral Films.

The purpose of these films is to depict the life of Paul, not only by means of text books, but by seeing. Twenty minute discussion periods will be held after the movie. These too will aid those who have seen the movie and read the text to understand better the life of Paul.

Gramley To Go North

Dr. Gramley will leave Sunday, February 25 for Bethlehem, Pennsylvania to address the annual dinner meeting of the community chest on February 26.

Teachers Will Be Honored

The Salem practice teachers will be entertained at a tea from 4:30 until 5:00 Wednesday afternoon by the Zeta chapter of the Delta Kappa Gamma Society. Instructors in the department of education are also invited.

The tea will be given at the home of Miss Anna Lula Dobson.

Deans Request Student's Co-op

The office of the Dean of Students requests that each girl before going to the infirmary, unless she is extremely ill, stop by the office and sign in the infirmary book on the dean's desk.

Sometimes it is 24 hours before the deans know that a girl has gone to the infirmary. If girls going to the infirmary would sign in the infirmary book it would facilitate contacting girls in the infirmary who have phone calls, visitors and packages.

The Deans also request that students not park their cars on Church Street any morning of next week.

The Bible study group of the Winston-Salem Preaching Mission will be meeting from 10:30 until 11:30 every morning in Home Moravian Church, and spaces will be needed for persons attending the study.

Alumnae Invite

Rooms in the Alumnae House will be available every week-end for any parents or friends of Salem students who wish to stay at Salem overnight. Either single or double rooms may be obtained, or there are alcoves for Salem graduates who are homesick for the old college atmosphere.

See Miss Marsh in the Alumnae Office in advance to make reservations.

Show To Be Held

The Pierrette Players are presenting a talent show Wednesday, February 21, at 7:45 p.m. in Old Chapel. Admission will be twenty.

Deans Plan Pages' Party

The Friendship Rooms in Strong Dormitory will be inaugurated for student activities tomorrow night when Mrs. Heidbreder and Miss Carlson entertain their pages.

The party will begin at 7:00 and will be a dessert party. An informal evening of entertainment will follow.

The deans feel that the pages are especially important at Salem. Many times they are the only impression of the college that visitors get. The pages, who serve in the reception room of Clewell, also take care of phone calls and packages that come for the students.

Approximately 20 pages have been invited to the party.

Mr. Campbell Will Speak

The Faculty Research group will meet Monday night, February 19, in the Friendship Rooms of Strong Dormitory. Mr. Roy Campbell will read a paper which he has entitled "Gas - producing, Spore - forming Aerobes". Mr. Campbell's topic is a further study on a previous paper of his which was published in the Elisha Mitchell Scientific Society Journal.

Karres, Woods Win Contest

Dena Karres and Charlotte Woods submitted the winning entry in the Salemite Letter-to-the-Editor Contest. The winning letter is printed on the editorial page.

The winners will be awarded a carton of cigarettes by Clara Belle LeGrand, campus representative for a nationally advertised cigarette.

A similar contest begins tonight, and the deadline for submitting entries will be Wednesday, February 21 at 6:00 p.m. Other students are asked to comment on the Salemite or to comment on the letter submitted in this issue. Another carton of cigarettes will be given next week.

Hollins Will Get New President

Dr. Gramley will represent Salem at the inauguration of John Ruth-erford Everell as the fourth president of Hollins College on April 15 and 16.

Salem Adds Art Major

A new art major is being offered at Salem. These courses are not supposed to produce new and outstanding artists or critics. The courses will, however, give students an excellent foundation in art appreciation and in studio art.

The major requires twenty-four hours for graduation. Courses included in the program are Principles of Design, History and Appreciation of Art, 101 and 102, Studio Art, 103, and 104, Studio Art, 203 and 204, Modern Art and Industrial Art.

Dr. Vickery To Visit Salem

Dr. Katherine Vickery of the faculty of Alabama State College for Women will be the guest of Salem in the Strong guest room February 21-23.

While on campus, Dr. Vickery will meet with various student leaders and visit classes in which she is interested. She will be entertained at a coffee by the faculty in Strong Wednesday evening.

Dr. Vickery is a professor of psychology at Alabama College in Montevallo, Alabama. She is a member of the Committee on Standards and Recognition of the American Association of University Women.

Dr. Judd To Open Mission

The Honorable Walter H. Judd will open the Winston-Salem Preaching Mission Sunday afternoon at 2:30 in the Reynolds Auditorium. Dr. Judd is a Congressman and a former medical missionary to China.

The Y will use this service as its vesper program for this week.

Symphony To Visit

The Houston Symphony with Ania Dorfmann, will appear at Reynolds Memorial Auditorium at 8:30 p.m. on Saturday, February 17. This is the fourth concert in the Civic Music Association series.
