

Patton Named Secretary Of N. C. C. P. A.

Jean Patton was elected secretary of the North Carolina Collegiate Press Association at its annual convention last week in Raleigh. Her election marks the first time in three years that Salem has been recognized in the Association's slate of officers.

Other Association leaders for the coming year are: Rolfe Neill, UNC, president; Lindsay Spry, State College, vice-president and Wayland Jenkins, Wake Forest, treasurer.

The elections ended the three-day meet which included a panel on editorial writing composed of Sam Regan of the Raleigh News and Observer, Ben Parks of the Raleigh Times and John Paul Jones, professor of journalism at the University of Florida, and a discussion group on journalistic technique conducted by Mr. Jones.

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

Number 20...THE BALTIMORE ORIOLE

Clean-up man on the baseball nine, this slugger doesn't like to reach for 'em . . . wants it right over the plate.

And that's the way he likes his proof of cigarette mildness! No razzle-dazzle "quick-puff" tests for him. No one-whiff, one-puff experiments.

There's one test, he's discovered, that's right down the alley!

It's the test that proves what cigarette mildness really means.

THE SENSIBLE TEST . . . the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camels as a steady smoke—

on a pack-after-pack, day-after-day basis.

After you've enjoyed Camels—and only Camels—for 30 days in your "T-Zone" (T for Throat,

T for Taste), we believe you'll know why . . .

More People Smoke Camels than any other cigarette!

Annex Cafeteria University of Utah Salt Lake City, Utah

THE DAILY Utah Chronicle

In Salt Lake City, Utah, there is always a friendly gathering of University of Utah students in the Annex Cafeteria. And, as in universities everywhere, ice-cold Coca-Cola helps make these get-togethers something to remember. As a pause from the study grind, or on a Saturday night date—Coke belongs.

Ask for it either way . . . both trade-marks mean the same thing.
