Seniors Win Softball Series Over Sophs In Wednesday Game

The Senior class won the softball championship Wednesday night when they defeated the Sophomore class 14-6. Both teams were undefeated when they clashed in the final game of the season. The Seniors gained the advantage by making 10 runs in the first three innings, while the Sophomores did not score until the last of the third inning. Cammy Lovelace pitched an outstanding game for the Seniors, and Effie Chonis starred in the field for her team. Eleanor McGregor paced her team on the mound, and Marilyn Samuel excelled in the field.

Last Wednesday the Seniors played the Freshmen. The final score was 16-5. However, due to a misunderstanding of the foul-tip ruling, the game was called and replayed Thursday, May 2, at which time the Seniors were triumphant 5-4. This game proved to be the best game of the year because of the small amount of errors. There were no more than five errors in the entire game.

The Freshmen somewhat redeemed themselves, however, when they defeated the Juniors 17-12 last Monday. The game was called because of darkness. The Seniors thrashed the Juniors in their annual meeting on the softball field last week. The final score was 12-8.

The Senior's determination brought the game into their hands and from then on, it was their game.

The Junior team at the end of the second inning was leading by three runs; however, they ran into some bad luck and failed to score in the next inning.

Faculty Team Is Announced

The faculty-student game has been scheduled for tomorrow at 2:00 p.m. The manager of the faculty team is Miss Virginia Hodges.

The line-up will be as follows: Dr. Gramley, pitcher; Mr. Paul Peterson, catcher; Mr. Warren Spencer, first base; Mr. Edwin Shewmake, second base; Mr. Carson French, third base; Mrs. Dorothy Moran, roaming short stop; Mr. James Lerch, short fielder; Miss Patsy Law, left fielder; Miss Virginia Hodges, center fielder; Dr. Gregg Singer, right fielder and Miss Jess Byrd, substitute.

Which Man Is VALENTINO?

ONE MAN IS THE SHIEK . . . THE GREAT LOVER OF THE ROARING TWENTIES

The other is ANTHONY DEXTER, the man for whom the producer of this marvelous technicolor picture looked for ten years. The resemblance will positively amaze you!!

LIFE says of RUDOLPH VALENTINO: "He came across the screen in Argentine costume, with Gaucho boots and a sash around his waist. He danced the tango; he strode up to women masterfully, he bent them back from the waist like lilies to kiss them, and when he whispered to them it was a breath of pure passion."
