

A. A. To Give Dance Oct. 27

An informal Halloween dance, to be held Oct. 27 in the Day Students center, has been planned by the A. A.

Emily Warden, A. A. president, appointed the dance committees at a meeting Wednesday night. Eleanor McGregor and Jane Watson are responsible for getting the juke box.

Refreshments will be arranged by Daisy Chonis, Emma Sue Larkins and Sally Ann Knight. In charge of the program are Beth Coursey, Joan Shope, and Helen Ridgway.

The decoration committee includes Ruthie Derrick, Carolyn Dobson, Emily Gunn, Jeanne Harrison, and Ann Hobbs. Jane Fearing, Bobbi Kuss, and Nancy Arnett will arrange the publicity.

The A. A. dance has been planned tentatively as an addition to the entertainment for Salem-Davidson Day.

NewsBriefs

Three library lectures will be presented in connection with the Freshman Seminars next week. Section A will meet on Oct. 8 at 3:00 p.m., Section B, on Oct. 9 at 2:00 p.m. and Section C on Oct. 10 at 2:00 p.m. The groups will meet in the main reading room and are requested to bring pencil and paper. ### Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

No. 24 THE CLAM

Fresh out of Bivalve, N. J., he arrived on the campus all bug-eyed and his big mouth hanging open. He was immediately sucked into a "shell game" and found himself making all the quick-trick cigarette tests. But his native instinct told him that such an important item as cigarette mildness couldn't be tossed off lightly. Millions of smokers everywhere have discovered, too, that there's but one true test of mildness.

It's the sensible test... the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camels as your steady smoke... on a pack-after-pack basis. No snap judgments! Once you've tried Camels for 30 days in your "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste), you'll see why...

After all the Mildness Tests—
