Cold shots will be given in the infirmary during the next few weeks. In order to prevent winter colds, all girls are urged to get their shots before cold weather. The charge is 60 cents.

The faculty and administrative group meeting was held at the home of Dr. Gramley on Oct. 24. The topic under discussion was "A Philosophy of Education at Salem College."

The Canterbury Club will sponsor a discussion on "Preparation for Christian Marriage" Thursday, Nov. 1 at 6:45 p.m. in the Day Students Center. The Rev. Fraser of St. Paul's Church will lead the discussion.

All students are invited. Dr. Dale Gramley, Miss Lelia Graham Marsh and Miss Ivy Hixson returned last Tuesday night lanta alumnae in Decatur and the inauguration of the new president of Agnes Scott College.

Students are asked not to leave books on the steps and porch of Main Hall, Memorial Hall steps and on Dr. Gramley's window sill during chapel. New shelves under the porch of Memorial Hall have been built for this purpose.

The bare trees on front campus... The flooded showers in Bitting and Strong — thanks to Martha Wolfe and Julia Moore... Marcia Skinner and Fay Lee chasing flies... The haggard look on the faces of the practice teachers... Emily Gunn slaving over her theory... the new coat of paint on Society... Laura Mitchell and Connie Murray perfecting an English accent... Emily Warden still waiting for Dunc—he missed the boat... the oft repeated tales of a football week-end in Washington... Monie Rowland's new hair cut... Beth Coursey's one-page letters... Jane Fearing making Halloween posters... the junior class anxiously awaiting the arrival of Grace Lynch Troutman's baby... Janes Smith and Schoolfield heading for Danville... the Dixon plan in Strong—no griping, no sad tales and no walking on the grass.

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

No. 25 THE SEA HORSE

This little gee-gee was all at sea. It was enough to upset his equine-imity. He'd been reading about those rush-rush cigarette tests — the quick sniff, the fast puff. "Hardly the scientific approach," he said in his confusion. But then he realized that one test is an equine of a different pigmentation—a thorough, conclusive test of cigarette mildness.

It's the sensible test... the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camels as your steady smoke—on a day-after-day basis. No snap judgments! Once you've tried Camels for 30 days in your "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste), you'll see why...

After all the Mildness Tests,
